I'm a Filipino lesbian (female homosexual) immigrant. I am against gender identity, I am against indulging a delusion, believing something doesn't make it true. As adults, as sane, rational beings we must know this and always stand for the truth. Sex is a biological reality. It just is, it's a statement of fact. Please think about who benefits from this decision. Do females, women, and girls benefit? Does it make females safer? Please stand for the truth.
