Thank you for your work trying to ensure that all people are protected from gender based violence in publicly funded institutions. Please ensure that national regulations protect against all negative behaviors directed at any individual based not only on their gender, but also on gender expression. I am not extremely well educated on what these particularly vulnerable LGBTQIA+ youth need, but I know that there are those who are. Please listen to their voices and don't leave these children behind to be told they are anything less than anyone else when it comes to being protected from harm.
