I write to express my thoughts.

Whilst I agree there should be no discrimination, the issue is of balance and fairness to all.

May I suggest that there be a competition and of course awards for the transgender group that is not separate but equal to the male and female competitors that wish to compete according to their birth sex.

May I also suggest that there be a separate locker room/ shower/bathroom for those that decide to transgender so that all concerned are comfortable with their own identity.

Girls and woman have come a long way to have all this disrupted just because of politics.

No discrimination just a fair playing field for all.

Sincerely

Basil
