I'm against T9 I do not want the government to mandate that schools teach sex to children until 16 or older. They can teach love tolerance acceptance and support. They can teach anti violence and bullying. Not gender identity sex or their own personal values. Children are very impressionable and don't need pressure to pick their gender either for acceptance or sporting advantages. Government should stay out!!?

Freedom goes both ways. Freedom of speech unless it bullies another should not result in pressure to lose one's profession any one of authority should know this or resign Children are very impressionable and should be respected and protected. Teaching inclusion respect and love for one another is critical but blame is NOT. Any member of the board that pushes blame encourages hate and must be removed. Thankfully Carol Branson
