Subject: Polices re gender identity

Title IX must remain based on sex, and all policies flowing from it remain sex-based. Women and girls need to retain single-sex sports, changing rooms, locker rooms, and bathrooms, for their safety, privacy, and dignity. Studies have shown that even after 3 years of estrogen therapy, transwomen retain vast advantages over women athletically.

The loss of single-sex spaces and sports causes girls and women to self-select out of public life. Girls risk UTIs and skip school when they have their periods if they have no single-sex bathrooms.

Title IX urgently needs to be enforced based on sex, not gender identity.
