Sex segregated spaces exist for the protection of females. Forcing girls to share these spaces with males puts them at risk. This is not to say that all males are definitely going to harm girls; this is about reducing the potential for harm. Studies show that unisex restrooms and changing rooms result in an increase of sexual harassment, including peeping, groping, and hidden recording devices. Please do not subject our girls to this. I myself was drugged and raped by a man identifying as a woman. I don't want any children or girls subjected to that kind of trauma. Our children deserve to be brought up in a scientifically proven world not one deeply entrenched in false, gender ideology.
Thank you,
Caitlin
