Dear Sir or Madam:

We are adamantly opposed to Religious Schools and institutions being required to allow transgender athletes to compete on whatever teams they wish to. This is ridiculous! Where is the fairness for women in their sports categories? Why not have transgender girls compete against other transgender girls?

It is also totally ridiculous to require schools to house transgender girls (I.E. – BIOLOGICAL MALES) in the same dorms as biological girls.

Also, schools that hold to a Biblical teaching on sexuality are covered by the First Amendment. There is absolutely no reason why they should not be protected and allowed to govern themselves according to their religious beliefs.

Thank you for your serious consideration of our beliefs which are protected under the First Amendment.

Sincerely,

Carrie Snavelly
