This is my views, and views of my family.
I do not support the LBGT community or their bullying activities against the religious people.
I would remind you that I do not support transgenders invading biological girl sports or vis versa.
The First Amendment is still the First Amendment and religious schools which adhere to Bible teachings pm sexuality are protected by it
The majority of Americans including myself are being fed up with left wing hate bullying of the LGBT attitudes and do not want tax dollars paid for their wicked concerns to force religious schools into their thought way.
