As a Registered Nurse in (b)(6) and a member of the Roman Catholic Church, I have concerns re: religious schools being forced to allow transgendered females ( biological males) to use female bathrooms, live in female dorms, and compete with biological females in sports. Religious schools follow the teachings of Jesus Christ, and should be protected by the First Amendment. Religious schools are not discriminating against transgendered females ( biological males), they are following the teachings of Christ. I strongly object to my tax dollars being used to force religious schools to abandon Christ's teaching. I strongly object to transgendered females ( biological males) being permitted to compete against biological females in any sport.

Thank You,
Elizabeth Pascuzzi
