Acting Director Goldberg

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I am writing to you concerning the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)."

The Title IX Amendments were clearly crafted to give educational opportunities to women and girls. The Biden Administration and the Department have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law. The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

I remember when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. This Department must not violate the privacy of girls.

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys.

Finally parental rights- including rights of parents to teach their children about sex- must be respected. Implementing radical gender ideologies in schools nationwide is NOT the role of the federal government. The Department must reject implementing radical gender ideologies nationwide.

Thank you,

Mrs. Nancye Gressett

Parental rights- including rights of parents to teach their children about sex- must be respected.

In the State of Colorado, a recent comprehensive sex education bill was passed and signed into law by Governor Polis against the wishes of millions of parents statewide.

Rather than teaching and focusing on children's reading, writing, and math, they are being forced to learn details about sex and being taught radical gender ideologies in the classrooms, including in Kindergarten! How shameful, disgraceful and disrespectful this is to children and to the parents.

As a parent, it is my firm belief that teaching sex education AND implementing radical gender ideologies in schools nationwide will not prepare children for any future job roles. Such teachings only confuse children and damage them mentally, emotionally, and socially for life.

To conclude, this is NOT the role of the federal government. This is purely leftist indoctrination and control over our children. I encourage, and urge, the Department must reject implementing radical gender ideologies nationwide. Our children deserve better than this!

Thank you,

Ms. Leonora Pirret

In my own words, I like knowing who I am talking to. The first clues are Mr or Mrs - male or female, he - she, youth or oldsters. I like to know the background of the people I am talking with, I want people to have personalities. Robots are so cold, and only follow orders or malfunction. From what I see, you are proposing to make everyone a "bot" - no personality. If you are in the dictator position, that is a normal mentality. Are you a dictator? What happens if you fall into disfavor with your old general. You are one stroke of the pen from being eliminated and you will find no one to help you because of the alienation that you are constructing and everyone's fear of being out of uniform and being noticed for being different. -

What happened to women's rights? Women and girls are being pushed aside for so called "rights" of men who want to be women.

They will always have the makeup of men, not matter what they "think".

Acting Director Goldberg

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I am writing to you concerning the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)."

The Title IX Amendments were clearly crafted to give educational opportunities to women and girls. The Biden Administration and the Department have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law. The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

I remember when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. This Department must not violate the privacy of girls.

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys.

Finally parental rights- including rights of parents to teach their children about sex- must be respected. Implementing radical gender ideologies in schools nationwide is NOT the role of the federal government. The Department must reject implementing radical gender ideologies nationwide.

Thank you,

Mrs. Kathy Christea

I am very much against the changes you want to make regarding the Title IX law.

Girls should not have to share locker rooms with boys nor should they have to compete against boys or transgender individuals in sports.

Also parents should have the right to teach their own children about sexuality according to their own beliefs and not have the government decide what those beliefs should be. This is not the role of the federal government!

The Department must reject implementing racial gender ideologies nationwide!

The "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)." is not in the best interest of girls and women. By redefining the law it will actually harm them and the Women's movement. Please stop!

Second, parents rights to raise their children and teach them must be protect!!! It is not the role of the federal government to teach our children their gender and take away the authority of parents to do so. The Department must reject implementing radical gender ideologies nationwide.

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I am writing to you concerning the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)."

The Title IX Amendments were clearly crafted to give educational opportunities to women and girls. The Biden Administration and the Department have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law. The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

I remember when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. This Department must not violate the privacy of girls.

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys.

Finally parental rights- including rights of parents to teach their children about sex- must be respected. Implementing radical gender ideologies in schools nationwide is NOT the role of the federal government. The Department must reject implementing radical gender ideologies nationwide.

Thank you,

Mrs. Clementina Rios

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I am writing to you concerning the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)."

We just flew across the country on a major airline, saw tons of people working in airports and traveling through them. There were men and women, boys and girls, elderly and babies and every age in between. It is a terrible thing what is happening in our country to confuse, corrupt, and destroy the beauty of being either a man or woman from birth. All of us have tons of problems to confront emotionally and circumstantially in our lives (anyone reading this also) . . . to make things worse from the highest positions in the land is a very serious shame, and you need to know that it is possible to absolutely change directions and head toward the TRUTH. God's way of designing things when our lives came from Him.

I write sincerely and lovingly, and am thankful to be able to.

Yes, finally, parents have the closest in responsibility to teach their children the truth, and protect them from the false harmful things proclaimed so loudly and unkindly to the well-being we each desire and aspire to.

Thank you,

Mrs. Barbie Jacobson

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

Re: Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)."

These Amendments were created to give educational opportunities to women and girls. The Biden Administration and the Department have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law. Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I am writing to you concerning the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)."

Biological girls need to continue to be able to compete in sports with, and only share bathrooms and locker rooms with, other biological girls. Without this distinction, there certainly is no point in even having Title IX. Even more dangerously, without this distinction we will teach our children things that are not true -- that their sexual identity is something that they can decide upon rather than something that they are by definition of their biology.

While I will accept that gender dysphoria may be a challenge for some children, I do not believe that the way this should be addressed is to tell them that they can change their physical bodies. We do not tell anorexic children that their thinking is correct and they should starve themselves.

Please leave these issues to parents and their medical caregivers to deal with individually.

Thank you,

Mr. Greg Brinks

I think you all need to get back to reality and recognize that there are only two biological sexes you can be born with and they are either " Male" or " Female". You only have to look in your pants to know which one you are. This Country had Morals at one time and it's time to get them back. Stop trying to make "Evil" good and "Good" evil. The government is supposed to work for US, not us for them. It's time to bring "GOD" back into this country, after all "GOD" is who our country was founded on. If these young people want to change their sex and/or identity because things don't go their way, then it's time they have a reality check and know that " They aren't going to always have or get handed to them everything they want". This is all getting so ridiculously out of hand. " Boys are born Boys" and "Girls are born Girls" period. There is no other way around that. You can identify as whatever you want, but is still all comes down to that. Stop pushing all of this "NONSENSE" on our children. It's the "PARENTS" Job to raise and teach them, "NOT YOURS", and the "TEACHERS" ARE ONLY TO TEACH THEM CLASS WORK" MATH, READING AND WRITING" not ANYTHING ELSE PERIOD. THAT'S UP TO THEIR FAMILIES!! The Biden Administration and the Department have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law. The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

I remember when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. This Department must not violate the privacy of girls.

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys.

Finally parental rights- including rights of parents to teach their children about sex- must be respected. Implementing radical gender ideologies in schools nationwide is NOT the role of the federal government. The Department must reject implementing radical gender ideologies nationwide.

Thank you,

Mr. Ronald Couey

Acting Director Goldberg

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I am writing to you concerning the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)."

The Title IX Amendments were clearly crafted to give educational opportunities to women and girls. The Biden Administration and the Department have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law. The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

The Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it.

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. Biology does not change when a person decides to think of themselves differently or actually alters their physical appearance. They still have the biological differences which prevent males and females from being equal competitors.

Parental rights- including rights of parents to teach their children about sex- must be respected. Implementing radical gender ideologies in schools nationwide is NOT the role of the federal government. Gender, sex, and the roles associated with each are defined by many according to their religious beliefs. The First Amendment protects my religious beliefs and practices. Teaching children these gender ideologies violates my religious beliefs and therefore violates my First Amendment Right.

This Department must not violate the privacy of girls!
This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys!
The Department must reject implementing radical gender ideologies nationwide!

Thank you,

Ms. Kim Nicodemus

Acting Director Goldberg

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I am strongly opposed to redefining "sex" as "sexual identity or gender identity"! The Department of Education should NOT allow boys into my daughter's locker room! If they do so, I will not allow my child to attend public school. Many other parents feel the same way. You will be weakening not strengthening our public school system.

Acting Director Goldberg

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I am writing to you concerning the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)."

The Title IX Amendments were clearly crafted to give educational opportunities to women and girls. The Biden Administration and the Department have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law. The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

I remember when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. This Department must not violate the privacy of girls.

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys.

Our churches are praying for you to please save our girls and young women from this policy.

Thank you,

Mr. Gregory Schwegel

The Biden Administration and the Department have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law. The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls. They will take away gains women's rights have fought for, and at the youngest ages.

I remember when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. This Department must not violate the privacy of girls. Do not take away the innocence of those too young to protect themselves.

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys. My niece went to college on an athletic scholarship, with the changes the Biden administration is trying to make, she would have lost that opportunity. She was also first in her immediate family to graduate college.

Finally parental rights- including rights of parents to teach their children about sex- must be respected. Implementing radical gender ideologies in schools nationwide is NOT the role of the federal government. The Department must reject implementing radical gender ideologies nationwide.

Acting Director Goldberg

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I am writing to you concerning the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)."

The Title IX Amendments were clearly crafted to give educational opportunities to women and girls. The Biden Administration and the Department have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law. The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

I remember when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. This Department must not violate the privacy of girls.

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys.

Finally parental rights- including rights of parents to teach their children about sex- must be respected. Implementing radical gender ideologies in schools nationwide is NOT the role of the federal government. The Department must reject implementing radical gender ideologies nationwide.

Thank you,

Mrs. Veronica Haun

It seems you government people are most interested in increasing the deaths of our youngsters & teenagers either through suicide or more violence. Trying to teach and expand sexual wierdness in our youth only guarantees more confusion in their mixed up minds. Confusion leads to depression and killing as the relief, either themselves or someone else. Don't be afraid of acknowledging that Almighty God is in charge of our sexual identification.

Acting Director Goldberg

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

Concerning the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)."

Title IX takes liberty away from those who believe that truth and liberty are God's idea for His children who He has created and given life to. Parents who differ have the right to teach their own children what they believe is truth but do not have the right to impose it on others through our educational system.

The governments job is to protect our rights not to take them from us if they disagree with our beliefs. You cannot do this by taking sides.

We should live by the rule of law, respecting and speaking the truth to each other in a gentle and loving way and always acting in kindness to those who disagree with us.

Thank you,

Ms. Nancy Torgerson

The Biden Administration and the Department have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law. The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

I remember when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. This Department must not violate the privacy of girls.

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys.

The old adage applies here...if it's not broken it does not need fixed. Title IX works! Work instead on expanding and supporting charter schools and other enriching educational opportunities.

Thank you,

Mr. Richard Lynn

This agenda you are pushing will lead to a NATIONAL CIVIL WAR VERY SOON IF IT IS NOT ABANDONED BY THIS ADMINISTRATION! I WILL SUPPORT THAT WAR WITH ALL MY HEART.

YOU can stop this wickedness, or YOU can be responsible for what comes. But YOU CANNOT ESCAPE facing what are the consequences of your actions. The choice is yours. Choose righteousness and choose well. You WILL BE CALLED TO ACCOUNT, but only by the American people, but far more importantly, by God Himself. He is not absent nor asleep nor blind. He is patient with you, NOT WISHING that you should perish, BUT RATHER that YOU SHOULD COME TO REPENT. THERE IS STILL TIME FOR YOU! I hope you use it well!

I strongly oppose ANY changes that redefine sex to include sexual orientation and "gender" identity. These are radical policies being put in place that take away parental rights, harm girls, and thwart all that is good about our society--though the Left is doing a great job of trying to destroy everything that makes America a beautiful place to live, as it is.

Do not do this, I implore you. Radical agendas, once just fringe ideas, are now becoming commonplace and we can see clearly the destruction they have on society.

The Title IX Amendments were clearly crafted to give educational opportunities to women and girls. The Biden Administration and the Department have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law. The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

I remember when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. This Department must not violate the privacy of girls.

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys.

Finally parental rights- including rights of parents to teach their children about sex- must be respected. Implementing radical gender ideologies in schools nationwide is NOT the role of the federal government. The Department must reject implementing radical gender ideologies nationwide.

Thank you,

Mrs. Magan Romig

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

Do not go against common sense and require boys and girls to pretend they are not different from each other. Any child can see the difference and any adult should have the sense to heed the difference. Do you not have any girls that you care about in sports or in gym classes or need to go to the restroom in school? What gain would changing Title IX accomplish for probably 99% of our population of females? Any change will say "We really do not care about girls, we only care about our agenda. I wish you would expound on the advantages.

Acting Director Goldberg

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I am writing to you because I am begging you to stop the madness. Knee-jerk reaction to social pundits do not stand for the long term in our history. We worked hard to get the title IX and now you are considering making a joke out of this. As a woman I am completely insulted that you would consider making these changes and making a joke out of women sports and other things. We are not making it better by making these changes for our children, What you were doing is making life uncertain and confusing for our kids.

Concerning the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)." I am totally against this. Create a new category of sports for these kids who because of society have no idea who they are. Make this category for by gender no gender by Ineri transgender students so you were leveling the playing field for them but also keeping a fair balance and other men and women's sports.

The Title IX Amendments were clearly crafted to give educational opportunities to women and girls. The Biden Administration and the Department have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law. The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

I remember when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. This Department must not violate the privacy of girls.

Finally parental rights- including rights of parents to teach their children about sex- must be respected. Implementing radical gender ideologies in schools nationwide is NOT the role of the federal government. The Department must reject implementing radical gender ideologies nationwide.

If you want to keep sports and school and keep them equal and fair across all genders you will create a title 10 for all unknown or an define or transgender students. That is within your scope and would be totally doable.

I am asking for you to use your intelligence and your wisdom and your heart when making these changes or even considering them. Our kids are the future of our country and when life is unfair for any segment there will be angry people Moving into positions of leader ship. This is something we should not look forward to.

Thank you,

Mrs. Rhonda Chesnutt

I remember when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. This Department must not violate the privacy of girls.

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys.

Please consider girls' rights. Don't make our country go backwards in regards to treatment of women.

Thank you,

Mrs. Cheryl Geiger

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I am writing to you concerning the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)."

The Title IX Amendments were clearly crafted to give educational opportunities to women and girls. The Biden Administration and the Department have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law. The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I am a faithful citizen and father of 5 expressing my views to you concerning the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)."

The Title IX Amendments were clearly crafted to give educational opportunities to women and girls. But the Biden Administration and the Department have clearly ignored the definitions, intention and scope of this law. The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown an irresponsible and adequately representative response of the general public in their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

The Biden Administration and the Department have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law. The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

I remember when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. This Department must not violate the privacy of girls.

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys.

We are praying for you to make the right choice. DO NOT ALLOW THE GOVERNMENT

Thank you,

Mrs. Antoinette Mansfield

I am strongly against the government requiring this new agenda to be incorporated into our public schools. This is extremely unfair to girls who would have to compete against biological males. It's discrimination against the girls.

Young children do not need to be educated on gender ideology. Very harmful and a complete outrage against them.

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

Please stop trying to "fix" legislation that is NOT BROKEN. There is absolutely no need to redefine language that was used in previous legislation. What you are really doing (in a not very subtle way) is CHANGE the meaning of existing laws that have already been approved by voters. Implementing radical gender ideologies in schools nationwide is NOT the role of the federal government. The Department must reject implementing radical gender ideologies nationwide. Question: How do you know if there is not a hidden agenda? What happens to their right to dignity and respect, as well as privacy?

What about their rights? Or they don't have any rights when it comes to their personal choice. I thought this was the land of the free, freedom of choice for all, not just one group of people, but for all. Biological boys/girls, some say this in order to have access to other genders may have a hidden purpose to violate the children/person they are sharing the bathroom with, or so they may not be what they claim. To think of removing girls from the podium at sports events, replaced by biological boys who are physically stronger. Where is sportsmanship? (means fair and generous behavior or treatment of other) Opponents to be equal to one another. Where is fair play?

Acting Director Goldberg

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I am writing to you concerning the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)."

The Title IX Amendments were clearly crafted to give educational opportunities to women and girls. The Biden Administration and the Department have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law. The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

I remember when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. This Department must not violate the privacy of girls.

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys.

Finally parental rights- including rights of parents to teach their children about sex- must be respected. Implementing radical gender ideologies in schools nationwide is NOT the role of the federal government. The Department must reject implementing radical gender ideologies nationwide.

Thank you,

Mr. Stephen Kirby

Acting Director Goldberg

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I am a father of two athletic girls and a grandfather of three more.
I'm having trouble explaining why they may be forced to compete with biological males in the near future.

That's why I'm writing to you concerning the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)."

The Title IX Amendments were clearly crafted to give educational opportunities to women and girls. Yet the current emphasis of this administration is to use this law to reduce opportunities for women and girls to excel by competing within their own biological gender (male/female).

We should follow the science. That means respecting biological gender differences rather than jumping to psychological definitions that are changing by the moment.

Your Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys.

I strongly oppose this "experiment" and the clear effort to redefine sexuality according to someone's feelings. Reality is calling and we need to answer.

I respect other's right to feel what they want but that doesn't change the reality of biological sex differences.

Please respect the rights of every citizen not just a very small minority of those struggling with sexual identity.

Thank you,

Mr. Robert McMillen

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I am writing to you concerning the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)."

The rights of transgender people to exist and live their lives as they see fit is protected by our constitution. However, these amendments are designed at forcing people to accept this behavior as normal, and will damage the protections that Title IX was originally supposed to give to women and girls. Do not strip dignity from women.

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I am writing to you concerning the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)."

The Title IX Amendments were clearly crafted to give educational opportunities to women and girls. The Biden Administration and the Department have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law. The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

I remember when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. This Department must not violate the privacy of girls.

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys.

Finally parental rights- including rights of parents to teach their children about sex- must be respected. Implementing radical gender ideologies in schools nationwide is NOT the role of the federal government. The Department must reject implementing radical gender ideologies nationwide.

Thank you,

Mrs. Janice Ferronato

What about their rights? Or they don't have any rights when it comes to their personal choice. I thought this was the land of the free, freedom of choice for all, not just one group of people, but for all. Biological boys/girls, some say this in order to have access to other genders may have a hidden purpose to violate the children/person they are sharing the bathroom with, or so they may not be what they claim. To think of removing girls from the podium at sports events, replaced by biological boys who are physically stronger. Where is sportsmanship? (means fair and generous behavior or treatment of other) Opponents to be equal to one another. Where is fair play?

The Title IX Amendments were clearly crafted to give educational opportunities to women and girls. The Biden Administration and the Department have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law. The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

I remember when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. This Department must not violate the privacy of girls.

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys.

Thank you,

Mrs. Jeanine Gardner

Acting Director Goldberg

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I am very concerned about the effect current proposed changes in policy will have on our children. You will be exposing our children, both male and female, to opportunities that they are not emotionally prepared to appropriately deal with. Allowing girls in boy's locker rooms puts an undue responsibility to control their hormonal urges. The concern is even more dire when allowing boys in the girl's locker rooms. We have a duty and responsibility to protect our children from their own urges before their ability to exercise proper restraint has had time to develop! Male and female brains are not identical, regardless of one's gender identity. The human brain is not fully developed until age 25. You cannot expect children to behave like little adults, that is why adult supervision is necessary. Adult supervision in the locker room cannot oversee every action, touch, look or word that is spoken that would cause irreparable damage to a naked child.

The Title IX Amendments were clearly crafted to give educational opportunities to women and girls. The Biden Administration and the Department have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law. The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I am writing to you concerning the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)."

As a teacher, I see how every child matures at a different stage. Not all students need the same information at the same time. It makes sense to allow parents to share information with their child as they see fit. A parent knows a child more than the educational system. No government can say what is best for an individual child.

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I would like to express my deep concern about the Department of Education's upcoming hearing concerning sexual orientation and gender identity. I am of the opinion that making changes of this sort to the Title IX amendment will alter the original intent of the amendment paving the way to discourage and harm girls, not protect and increase their opportunities. When biological boys are allowed to participate with them in sports, biological girls lose every time, decreasing their hope and chances at success in college. Why have separate boys and girls sports if those distinctions are not kept? Not only this, but allowing boys and girls to be together in locker room settings brings complications, a lack of privacy, and exposure to settings some parents work hard to prevent.

Please reconsider the impact poor changes will have on the development and mental health of our girls! Parental desires and rights must be considered and respected. It is not in the best interest of the nation to indoctrinate a generation of children in this new "identity" ideology, which has no basis in biological fact. I am not saying that gender dysphoria does not exist. On the contrary, it does, but could be treated in the same realm it exists - psychological and emotional instead of being taught as an option to impressionable school children across the nation. If that occurred, we would soon have a nation of confused young citizens who will believe all emotions should be trusted and acted upon.

When the Emperor paraded through town wearing his "new clothes," only a boy had the courage to speak the truth. We are living in the emperor's town, and those who do speak up are regrettably silenced. Truth is a beacon of light to a nation and guides action. Truth matters.

I remember when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. This Department must not violate the privacy of girls.

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. THIS IS WRONG. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys. What does that teach our nation's young women?

Parental rights- including rights of parents to teach their children about sex- must be respected. Implementing radical gender ideologies in schools nationwide is NOT the role of the federal government. The Department must reject implementing radical gender ideologies nationwide.

Please think about the precious children of our nation that would be adversely affected by these changes before making such a decision.

Thank you,

Mrs. Jennifer Harrelson

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I am writing to you concerning the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)."

The Title IX Amendments were clearly crafted to give educational opportunities to women and girls. The Biden Administration and the Department have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law. The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

I remember when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. This Department must not violate the privacy of girls.

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys.

Question: How do you know if there is not a hidden agenda? What happens to their right to dignity and respect, as well as privacy?

What about their rights? Or they don't have any rights when it comes to their personal choice. I thought this was the land of the free, freedom of choice for all, not just one group of people, but for all. Biological boys/girls, some say this in order to have access to other genders may have a hidden purpose to violate the children/person they are sharing the bathroom with, or so they may not be what they claim. To think of removing girls from the podium at sports events, replaced by biological boys who are physically stronger. Where is sportsmanship? (means fair and generous behavior or treatment of other) Opponents to be equal to one another. Where is fair play?

Acting Director Goldberg

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I am writing to you concerning the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)."

The Title IX Amendments were clearly crafted to give educational opportunities to women and girls. The Biden Administration and the Department have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law. The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

I remember when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. This Department must not violate the privacy of girls.

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys.

Thank you,

Mrs. Lois Deskins

Acting Director Goldberg

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I am writing to tell you that I strongly oppose your proposed changes to Title IX to define "sex" to include "sexual orientation" and "gender identity" implementation in the public school curriculum. Truthfully, "sex" should be taught at home and the schools should make sure that our public school students are taught to be fluent readers, excellent writers and mathematicians, truthful historians, knowledgeable scientists, talented musicians and artists. To spend valuable time on this radical agenda during the school day is a complete travesty. If you are hell-bent on trying to implement your ridiculous ideas, let it be an after-school opportunity that is optional and spend the school day teaching subjects that enable students to be educated in areas of importance.

Acting Director Goldberg

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I am writing to you concerning the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)."

The Title IX Amendments were clearly crafted to give educational opportunities to women and girls. The Biden Administration and the Department have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law. The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

I remember when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. This Department must not violate the privacy of girls.

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys.

Thank you,

Mrs. Ximena Mendez

I agree with the following statements. What you plant in children's minds can produce changes in their thinking. It's very subtle or outright blatant. Why try to influence children away from how God made them. Why try to plant these ideas in their minds? I know from personal experience how culture can shape a child's thinking. Are you just trying to be accepted by the gay/lesbian agenda? Leave our children alone and stop confusing them with these agendas..please!!

Acting Director Goldberg

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I am writing to you concerning the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)."

The Title IX Amendments were clearly crafted to give educational opportunities to women and girls. The Biden Administration and the Department have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law. The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

I remember when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. This Department must not violate the privacy of girls.

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys.

Thank you,

Mr. Virgil Weixelman

Acting Director Goldberg

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I am writing to you concerning the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)."

The Title IX Amendments were clearly crafted to give educational opportunities to women and girls. The Biden Administration and the Department have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law. The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

I remember when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. This Department must not violate the privacy of girls.

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys.

Thank you,

Mr. Joshua Gagliardi

You must stop indoctrinating our children to hate the police, to hate their country and to believe that we are a racist country. Children do not see color! You have no idea what the child's religion or home-life is like. You have no right to tell our children what to believe or how to think. It is not your place to introduce them to sexual ideas, preferences, morals or gender fluidity.

Your job is to teach our children reading, writing and arithmetic....all of which they are failing miserably. DO YOUR JOB, and let the parents do theirs.

You are waking a very angry sleeping giant.....MOTHERS!! LEAVE OUR CHILDREN ALONE AND KEEP YOUR SICKENING PERVERTED IDEAS TO YOURSELF!

Thank you,

Ms. Mary Sieg

Acting Director Goldberg

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I believe such topics of "sexual orientation" should be taught at home or at the very least in high school. Also gender identification should not be even a choice until a child reaches the age to understand what the change entails. Also, this should not be a choice of anyone except a mature individual for themselves.

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I am writing to you concerning the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)."

The Title IX Amendments were developed to give educational opportunities to women and girls. The Biden Administration is ignoring this and pushing to redefine the law, which will lead to violating the privacy of women and girls.

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored.

Acting Director Goldberg

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I am writing to you concerning the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)."

The Title IX Amendments were clearly crafted to give educational opportunities to women and girls. The Biden Administration and the Department have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law. The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

I remember when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. This Department must not violate the privacy of girls.

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys.

Finally parental rights- including rights of parents to teach their children about sex- must be respected. Implementing radical gender ideologies in schools nationwide is NOT the role of the federal government. The Department must reject implementing radical gender ideologies nationwide.

Thank you,

Mrs. ROSEMARY CHASE

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I am writing to you concerning the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)."

There are two points I would like to add to this statement; the first being that the body matures up into the mid twenties (specifically the brain). The education system is partitioned accordingly. An example of this requirement became clear when The drinking age was lowered to 18 and nothing could stop The children from drinking and driving until they raised the drinking age. Sexual identity and all the responsibilities in a relationship are exponentially more complex and bodies are not ready to bear the physical or psychological stress as born out by disease, pregnancies and youth suicides. To me The rest of this document pales in comparison to the stress placed on children who need to grow up before they play adults. The Title IX Amendments were clearly crafted to give educational opportunities to women and girls. The Biden Administration and the Department have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law. The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

I remember when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. This Department must not violate the privacy of girls.

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys.

Frankly, are you kidding, have you lost all moral compass? I pay $7,000 for my youngest daughter and also support my 8 granddaughters to go to private school because of the view points of the public school system via the government. You are asking for a young woman to be raped and then you will not be responsible for it. This is absolutely disgusting!

Thank you,

Mrs. Janet Eberhardy

Acting Director Goldberg

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

Why is it that the Biden Administration is bound and determined to protect the rights of those who prefer to identify or become the gender that is opposite of their biological birth gender. They have a right to think like they do, however; it is not based on science and facts. I thought his administration was governing by facts and science.

Having said that, what is the administration doing to protect the rights of those who believe they are the gender that they are born with? Title IX should not be changed. It is just as important to protect traditional values as it is to protect people who think differently. I can call a person what they want to be called and I can work alone side anyone. All people deserve respect. But traditional thinking persons also deserve the rights to modesty and privacy. They deserve to participate fairly in activities and sports with the same biological body build and functions.

I am writing to you concerning the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)."

Acting Director Goldberg

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I am writing to you concerning the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)."

The Title IX Amendments were clearly crafted to give educational opportunities to women and girls. The Biden Administration and the Department have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law. The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

I remember when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. This Department must not violate the privacy of girls.

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys.

Finally parental rights- including rights of parents to teach their children about sex- must be respected. Implementing radical gender ideologies in schools nationwide is NOT the role of the federal government. The Department must reject implementing radical gender ideologies nationwide.

Thank you,

Mrs. Christina Brusca

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I am writing to you concerning the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)."

We constantly heard "FOLLOW THE SCIENCE" during the COVID-19 event. Now, I am asking you to do the same. It is obvious there are two genders - male and female. Our DNA defines us and no matter what we think or believe. Our genetic makeup will not change.

Please stop playing politics and think about our children and not the adults who want this legislation passed. We are not giving our girls the same opportunities that we have had. Simply stated: Boys and girls are biologically different.

The Title IX Amendments were clearly crafted to give educational opportunities to women and girls. The Biden Administration and the Department have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law. The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

In the last few months, I have seen a major trend of elected officials forgetting why you are in Washington. Please vote based on your constituents and not your political party. We voted you in office to represent the people in your state! You were not voted into office to follow "party" lines.

Thank you,

Ms. Veronica Newhoff

Acting Director Goldberg

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I am writing to you concerning the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)."

I strongly oppose your inserting sexuality into the schools. Teachers have no business teaching this confusing agenda to their students. The Title IX Amendments were clearly crafted to give educational opportunities to women and girls. The Biden Administration and the Department have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law. The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

I remember when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. This Department must not violate the privacy of girls.

Finally parental rights- including rights of parents to teach their children about sex- must be respected. Implementing radical gender ideologies in schools nationwide is NOT the role of the federal government. The Department must reject implementing radical gender ideologies nationwide.

Thank you,

Mrs. Amy Scherschligt

As a parent what is taught my children has always been and always will be of great concern to me. Our beliefs should not be overridden out of a false sense of compassion. Yes we should be thoughtful of others but also mindful of the difference between feelings and truth. Religious beliefs must not be trampled on just to make others feel good.

Acting Director Goldberg

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I am writing to you concerning the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)."

The Title IX Amendments were clearly crafted to give educational opportunities to women and girls. The Biden Administration and the Department have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law. The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

I remember when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. This Department must not violate the privacy of girls.

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys.

Finally parental rights- including rights of parents to teach their children about sex- must be respected. Implementing radical gender ideologies in schools nationwide is NOT the role of the federal government. The Department must reject implementing radical gender ideologies nationwide.

Thank you,

Mrs. Christal Sonaggera

I STRONGLY OPPOSE ANY CHANGES in their education policies that redefine "sex" to include "sexual orientation" and "gender identity." Biden's Education Department has no place attempting to implement this radical agenda into every local school district in the country.

Yes this finely crafted letter above represents my thoughts. It is not the place of public schools to teach these things at any age much less in the formative early elementary years. The younger kids still believe in Santa Clause and the Easter Bunny. Can you imagine what this can do to a young human mind?

I remember when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. This Department must not violate the privacy of girls.

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys.

Finally parental rights- including rights of parents to teach their children about sex- must be respected. Implementing radical gender ideologies in schools nationwide is NOT the role of the federal government. The Department must reject implementing radical gender ideologies nationwide.

Thank you,

Mrs. Michele Garcia

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I am writing to you concerning the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)."

The Title IX Amendments were clearly crafted to give educational opportunities to women and girls. The Biden Administration and the Department have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law. The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

Acting Director Goldberg

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I am writing to you as a former physical education teacher and coach. My teaching career started the year after Title IX was passed. The growth in opportunities for girls was amazing. (I had the choice of only one sport in which to compete and was able to get a college scholarship because of that sport) The programs that you are attempting to destroy will take away all progress that has been made over these years. Please don't punish these female athletes who have worked so hard and then to have it all taken away.

The Title IX Amendments were clearly crafted to give educational opportunities to women and girls. The Biden Administration and the Department have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law. The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

I remember when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. This Department must not violate the privacy of girls.

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys.

Finally parental rights- including rights of parents to teach their children about sex- must be respected. Implementing radical gender ideologies in schools nationwide is NOT the role of the federal government. The Department must reject implementing radical gender ideologies nationwide.

Thank you,

Mrs. Shirley Troup

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

These children will change their minds on their favorite ice cream, friends, teachers and class subjects etc. dozens of times before they graduate. Why confuse them with this topic. Jun 7, 2021

Acting Director Goldberg

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I am writing to voice concerns I have regarding Title IX and how it may be used against schools who do not adhere to new policies being proposed.

Over the past year we have been told it is of utmost importance to "follow the science." If this is the way we are to go, well then it is obvious we have a given gender at birth. We are either male or female. You cannot change this even with gender altering surgery.

While I certainly feel sympathy for someone who deals with feeling of being in the "wrong" body, I do not feel they (or government agencies like the dept of education) have the right to force this on others.

I would not deny anyone their personal decision regarding their body. However, I feel there can be a better way to integrate these persons into a school setting.

Forcing girls to share a locker room/bathroom with a person of male gender should not be done. If accommodations must be made, it should be a separate facility. Giving individuals who identify as something other than their birth gender should have their own bathroom/locker room.

I further believe males, who wish to identify as female should not be permitted to participate in girls sports. The males have a clear advantage physically. Deserving girls would be denied scholarships or awards they would earn in an all female setting.

I respectfully ask that you consider these girls when making your decisions. These are not easy decisions to make but those making them must be conscience of the harm forcing this on young girls could have.

Thank you for your time and consideration in this matter.
Kathy Schreiner

Acting Director Goldberg

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I am writing to you concerning the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)."

The Title IX Amendments were clearly crafted to give educational opportunities to women and girls. The Biden Administration and the Department have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law. The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

I remember when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. This Department must not violate the privacy of girls.

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys.

Finally parental rights- including rights of parents to teach their children about sex- must be respected. Implementing radical gender ideologies in schools nationwide is NOT the role of the federal government. The Department must reject implementing radical gender ideologies nationwide.

Thank you,

Mrs. Desarae Montier

Acting Director Goldberg

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I am writing to you concerning the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)."

The Title IX Amendments were clearly crafted to give educational opportunities to women and girls. The Biden Administration and the Department have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law. The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

I remember when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. This Department must not violate the privacy of girls.

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys.

Finally parental rights- including rights of parents to teach their children about sex- must be respected. Implementing radical gender ideologies in schools nationwide is NOT the role of the federal government. The Department must reject implementing radical gender ideologies nationwide.

Thank you,

Mrs. Cynthia Jensen

I support biological girls competing and interacting with biological girls. The interaction of biological girls with biological boys in sports and the locker rooms are clearly detrimental to the chromosomal females, resulting in long term insecurities and psychological trauma. Why inflict this on our future daughters, granddaughters, mothers and grandmothers. It is a long term nightmare for biological/chromosomal females. No amount of philosophical or psychological gymnastics can provide a logical rationale as to how this is fair, decent or reasonable for the young biological/chromosomal females we desire to give the full potential to be all they can be.

Acting Director Goldberg

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I am writing to you concerning the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)."

The Title IX Amendments were clearly crafted to give educational opportunities to women and girls. The Biden Administration and the Department have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law. The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

I remember when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. This Department must not violate the privacy of girls.

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys.

Finally parental rights- including rights of parents to teach their children about sex- must be respected. Implementing radical gender ideologies in schools nationwide is NOT the role of the federal government. The Department must reject implementing radical gender ideologies nationwide.

Thank you,

Mr. Stewart Vaczi

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

Thank you for taking the time to listen to concerned citizens!
Please don't require SOGI based teaching in K-12 schools...the risk of sowing confusion is large for young minds. Parents should own this corridor of educating their children.
Please protect girls from gender confused males in private spaces and in athletic competitions.
Tried to be brief to not consume your time...THANKS for your service...may light and wisdom prevail in and through you!!

Acting Director Goldberg

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I am writing to you concerning the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)."

The Title IX Amendments were clearly crafted to give educational opportunities to women and girls. The Biden Administration and the Department have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law. The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

I remember when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. This Department must not violate the privacy of girls.

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys.

Finally parental rights- including rights of parents to teach their children about sex- must be respected. Implementing radical gender ideologies in schools nationwide is NOT the role of the federal government. The Department must reject implementing radical gender ideologies nationwide.

Thank you,

Mrs. Lucy Tooley

These policies are unconstitutional and go against religious freedoms and rights. It is also unscientific. It is my right as a parent to teach truth to our children not the government's. Teachers are there to teach subjects not ideologies. I am against any form of teaching that includes teaching gender identity. The government has no right to tell my child what to believe.

As a mother of two daughters in the public school system, which participate in school-based athletic sports programs, I am even now considering removing them from the public school system. If these changes are made to the Title IX, it will be the nail that seals the coffin on our participation in public education and athletics.

I remember when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. This Department must not violate the privacy of girls.

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys.

Finally parental rights- including rights of parents to teach their children about sex- must be respected. Implementing radical gender ideologies in schools nationwide is NOT the role of the federal government. The Department must reject implementing radical gender ideologies nationwide.

Thank you,

Dr. Zachariah Beasley

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I am writing to you concerning the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)."

The Title IX Amendments were clearly crafted to give educational opportunities to women and girls. The Biden Administration and the Department have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law. The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

I remember when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. This Department must not violate the privacy of girls.

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys.

Finally parental rights- including rights of parents to teach their children about sex- must be respected. Implementing radical gender ideologies in schools nationwide is NOT the role of the federal government. The Department must reject implementing radical gender ideologies nationwide.

Thank you,

Ms. Chelsea Harris

The Biden Administration and the Department have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law. The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

I remember when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. This Department must not violate the privacy of girls.

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys.

Finally parental rights- including rights of parents to teach their children about sex- must be respected. Implementing radical gender ideologies in schools nationwide is NOT the role of the federal government. The Department must reject implementing radical gender ideologies nationwide.

Thank you,

Mrs. Bridget Brightwell

The Title IX Amendments were clearly crafted to give educational opportunities to women and girls. The Biden Administration and the Department have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law. The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

I remember when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. This Department must not violate the privacy of girls.

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys.

Finally parental rights- including rights of parents to teach their children about sex- must be respected. Implementing radical gender ideologies in schools nationwide is NOT the role of the federal government. The Department must reject implementing radical gender ideologies nationwide.

Thank you,

Mr. Scott Alley

The Biden Administration and the Department have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law. The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

I remember when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. This Department must not violate the privacy of girls.

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys.

Finally parental rights- including rights of parents to teach their children about sex- must be respected. Implementing radical gender ideologies in schools nationwide is NOT the role of the federal government. The Department must reject implementing radical gender ideologies nationwide.

Thank you,

Mr. Larimore Henley

Acting Director Goldberg

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

As a loving and worried parent, I am writing to you concerning the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)."

The Title IX Amendments were clearly crafted to give educational opportunities to women and girls. The Biden Administration and the Department have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law. The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

I remember when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it as I will never send my kids to any school that exposes them to opposite sexs bodies as we teach them that they have the right to protect their bodies private parts from others and that our daughter needs to give our son privacy when dressing and using the restroom and vs. versa. If I don't allow my boy and girl to change clothes in the same room, why would I want them to change or use the bathroom with other opposite gender children? This Department must not violate the privacy of my sons and daughter. My husband and I are actually sending our kids to a new charter school in hopes of avoiding boys and girls sharing restrooms and locker rooms as the administration for the school has told us that the school has separate facilities for girls and boys. I will teach my children at home before I allow their privacy to be violated due to school policies that are not in their best interests.

our bathroom scale can tell me and my husband that although he only weighs about ten pounds more than me, he has about sixty pounds more muscle than I do. He can easily lift more than me and run faster than me. I even work out more than he does. I am not upset about this difference: However, if I had to compete against my husband on a regular basis, I would be frustrated with how easily he would beat me; and eventually, I would quit. We have separate sports for men and women because it's just basic science that men and women are different

Finally parental rights- including rights of parents to teach their children about sex- must be respected. Implementing radical gender ideologies in schools nationwide is NOT the role of the federal government. It is my job to teach my kids about sex and sexual orientation. When I was a girl, I wanted to be a boy as it felt like my brothers got to do all the fun stuff but they did not want their sister hanging out with them. In middle school, I found I enjoyed being a girl; and now, I am the mother to four wonderful children that make my life complete. I am lucky that when I was young no one tried to tell me that I could be a boy as I would have missed out on being a mom. One of our kids is adopted so I can tell you that adoption is different so yes I could have adopted kids but giving birth is creating a new little life which I could not do if I had changed my gender with opposite sex hormones. I will not allow that to happen to my children either. Also just as a side bite I note, I have had a hormone imbalance for over a decade and it has created many issues for me so I cannot imagine how hard changing many hormones in a person's body will be on anyone's personal health. For the health and well being iffect implementing radical gender ideologies nationwide.

Thank you,

Mrs. Kimberly Norris

Acting Director Goldberg

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I am writing to you concerning the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)."

The Title IX Amendments were clearly crafted to give educational opportunities to women and girls. The Biden Administration and the Department have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law. The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

I remember when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. This Department must not violate the privacy of girls.

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys.

Finally parental rights- including rights of parents to teach their children about sex- must be respected. Implementing radical gender ideologies in schools nationwide is NOT the role of the federal government. The Department must reject implementing radical gender ideologies nationwide.

Thank you,
Nabila Riskalla

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I am writing to you concerning the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)."

The Title IX Amendments were clearly crafted to give educational opportunities to women and girls. The Biden Administration and the Department have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law. The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

I was involved in an office job in (b)(6) at that time and switching jobs between two companies that I was working on. I was refused to be able to apply for the same position I was leaving due to to the Title IX being in considerations. At that time it was for Equal Rights in the Job Force and to apply for various jobs despite gender. I could not get the same job I had at one company in the new company.

Title IX is being used way out of its realm of purpose. This whole section is contrary to our being - male and female human race from the very beginning. We must never lower our standards of our abilities and make them a non being in any facet of our lives. Our bodies are made for a purpose - created by two human beings - for a purpose. Muscle tone body and mind thinking mentally and physically. Females compassionate, males aggressive and workers, we have a life role that is built in and those traits are ingrained in our being naturally. Developments of how they are to grow, has many influences. We must never ever blend our children in such a system as you are presenting. Humans are a super type of creation not to be used as experimental training by others to make us all "equals". Human race is a wonderful thing, we must keep it protected. An ability is ones own choosing in their role in life, to be the best they can be in their role of growth and choosing. Not forced into any role by any governmental institution and a "mixing of the masses" in mind control and sexual behaviours.

I was in the middle of the Title IX. To use that now in such a manner as this is totally outrageous for control of our littlest valuable resources for all our peoples.

Humans are not specimens in a little science study or control our being.

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I am writing to you concerning the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)."

The Title IX Amendments were clearly crafted to give educational opportunities to women and girls. The Biden Administration and the Department have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law. The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

I remember when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. This Department must not violate the privacy of girls.

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys.

Finally parental rights- including rights of parents to teach their children about sex- must be respected. Implementing radical gender ideologies in schools nationwide is NOT the role of the federal government. The Department must reject implementing radical gender ideologies nationwide.

Thank you,

Mr. William OByrne

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I am writing to you concerning the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)."

I taught in public schools for more than thirty years. During that time I was forced to belong to the NEA which started promoted this radical agenda. The controlling body would make statements that stated the whole organization favored whatever was being proposed without asking for our opinions. Most of the time what was being promoted did not have the favor of those in the classrooms.

Furthermore, this controlling group of the NEA was able to use this closed union's clout to get candidates for government officials, who would promote these ideas, in all branches of government. Today we are just beginning to see the results of this group's efforts.

The Title IX Amendments were clearly crafted to give educational opportunities to women and girls. The Biden Administration and the Department have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law. The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys. Children should also not be forced to pinch their hands and say I am not white as the CRT is insisting.

ideologies in schools nationwide is NOT the role of the federal government. The Department must reject implementing radical gender ideologies nationwide.

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys.

Finally parental rights- including rights of parents to teach their children about sex- must be respected. Implementing radical gender ideologies in schools nationwide is NOT the role of the federal government. The Department must reject implementing radical gender ideologies nationwide. Please do not move forward with these changes that harm our children!

Thank you,

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I am writing to you concerning the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)."

The Title IX Amendments were clearly crafted to give educational opportunities to women and girls. The Biden Administration and the Department have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law. The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

I remember when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. This Department must not violate the privacy of girls.

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys.

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

The changes being proposed support one world view that does not want me to be allowed to practice my view of God and the way He wants my children to live. Do not take away my freedom of religion and give it to a small but very vocal group.

I pray that you will hear each man and woman's voice about how disgraceful this change would be. Our nation is hurting because we are taking God and his laws out of everything including our schools. Our nations foundation was set firm on Christian beliefs, so let's stick to that before we completely fall apart. The more that and staff are being pushed to educate on sex/gender the more we will fight back and or seek other employment.

The Title IX Amendments were clearly crafted to give educational opportunities to women and girls. The Biden Administration and the Department have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law. The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

I remember when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. This Department must not violate the privacy of girls.

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys.

Finally parental rights- including rights of parents to teach their children about sex- must be respected. Implementing radical gender ideologies in schools nationwide is NOT the role of the federal government. The Department must reject implementing radical gender ideologies nationwide.

Thank you,

Mr. Jack Jacob

Acting Director Goldberg

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I am writing to you concerning the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)."

The Title IX Amendments were clearly crafted to give educational opportunities to women and girls. The Biden Administration and the Department have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law. The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

I remember when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. This Department must not violate the privacy of girls.

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys.

Finally parental rights- including rights of parents to teach their children about sex- must be respected. Implementing radical gender ideologies in schools nationwide is NOT the role of the federal government. The Department must reject implementing radical gender ideologies nationwide.

Thank you,

Mrs. Lisa Goddard

Acting Director Goldberg

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I am writing to you concerning the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)."

The Title IX Amendments were clearly crafted to give educational opportunities to women and girls. The Biden Administration and the Department have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law. The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

I remember when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. This Department must not violate the privacy of girls.

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys.

Finally parental rights- including rights of parents to teach their children about sex- must be respected. Implementing radical gender ideologies in schools nationwide is NOT the role of the federal government. The Department must reject implementing radical gender ideologies nationwide.

Thank you,

Mr. Tracy Hinckle

Finally, how about making it a priority for the main goal of our education system in America to be Making sure no child ever leaves our school system with a diploma and still not be proficient in reading, writing and arithmetic! Millions of American children graduate from American schools without the ability to read, write and reason for themselves.

That should be the focus! Not sex and transgender issues. Perhaps if more Americans could read, write and reason for themselves we wouldn't have a need to defend our children and parents from the over reach of their own government!

Thank you,

Mr. Michael Burke

Acting Director Goldberg

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I am writing to you concerning the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)."

The Title IX Amendments were clearly crafted to give educational opportunities to women and girls. The Biden Administration and the Department have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law. The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

I remember when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. This Department must not violate the privacy of girls.

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys.

Finally parental rights- including rights of parents to teach their children about sex- must be respected. Implementing radical gender ideologies in schools nationwide is NOT the role of the federal government. The Department must reject implementing radical gender ideologies nationwide.

Thank you,

Mrs. Kristen Barker

Children should not be influenced or taught that their sex is changeable! It is settled in our genes at conception; we are either XX or XY. This IS science. Children are being influenced and led into mutilating their bodies to change their outward appearance. Many of these are sorry later, but they can't have their body parts back like they were. Many commit suicide at some point. This can all be prevented, by not confusing kids in the first place. They should be taught to accept who they are and to excel in school. Too much time is being spent on on social experimenting on our children. They are not kept safe from those who prey on them.

I am writing to you concerning the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)."

The Title IX Amendments were clearly crafted to give educational opportunities to women and girls. The Biden Administration and the Department have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law. The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

I remember when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. This Department must not violate the privacy of girls.

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys.

Finally parental rights- including rights of parents to teach their children about sex- must be respected. Implementing radical gender ideologies in schools nationwide is NOT the role of the federal government. The Department must reject implementing radical gender ideologies nationwide.

Thank you,

Mr. Steve Shaffer

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

As a country, WE are better than this. WE can make changes that still protect women and girls sports and privacy, but it's not through this type of legislation. Please don't take rights from girls, women, and parents to give to another group, not matter how and what they identify as. I am a woman of minority and am grateful for all those who fought for my right to play fairly in sports. Instead of legislating against girls and women, perhaps the transgender men and women can start their own league to play fairly. Is it right to take from one and give to another?

Also, please don't take my right or any other parent's right to teach their kids about gender, sex, identities. Should my children be taught by the school system that gender is a choice- NO. Should my children be taught to love others despite their choices, YES, absolutely. So please don't allow this overreach of parental right. This is America. My family immigrated because WE live in the land of the free. WE have the freedom from the government to teach our kids. Currently, transgenders are allowed to teach their children what they want, why not let me teach my children without government involvement?

I humbly ask you to not make changes to title IX.

Thank you,

Mrs. Jasmine Duda

Acting Director Goldberg

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I am writing to you concerning the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)."

The Title IX Amendments were clearly crafted to give educational opportunities to women and girls. The Biden Administration and the Department have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law. The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

I remember when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. This Department must not violate the privacy of girls.

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys.

Finally parental rights- including rights of parents to teach their children about sex- must be respected. Implementing radical gender ideologies in schools nationwide is NOT the role of the federal government. The Department must reject implementing radical gender ideologies nationwide.

Thank you,

Mr. Dave See

The direction the Biden administration is trying to take America in will, in so many areas, lead to us being another Venezuela... The changes they want are NOT good for women and will NOT improve enforcement of the Title IX Education Amendments of 1972. Their changes will be totally destructive to women!!!

Acting Director Goldberg

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I am writing to you concerning the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)."

We have many people in the United States who are functionally illiterate. We have people who are struggling with basic math skills. We have people who do not know how to use an apostrophe, or how to properly conjugate a verb.

It is clear to me that our most pressing agenda is improving the basic education that our citizens receive. In choosing to focus on the non-essentials, you doom those who have no at-home support to a potential life of failure and unrealized potential.

A failure to reach one's potential can have devastating consequences for an individual. However, the consequences are worse for society in general. I have to ask myself, why would you want to preside over a failed system?

We need to focus on reading, writing, basic arithmetic, and subjects such as nutrition and physical education, in order to help our citizens live productive and healthy lives. They will be less of a drain on the system, also. We need for the majority of people to contribute to the system rather than take. So help them out, and put time and money toward the basics.

I am depending on you and your department to improve the lot of those who cannot do it for themselves. We need time and funds to be directed toward the basics.

The Title IX Amendments were clearly crafted to give educational opportunities to women and girls. The Biden Administration and the Department have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law. The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

I remember when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. This Department must not violate the privacy of girls.

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys.

Acting Director Goldberg

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I am writing to you concerning the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)."

The Title IX Amendments were clearly crafted to give educational opportunities to women and girls. The Biden Administration and the Department have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law. The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

I remember when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. This Department must not violate the privacy of girls.

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys.

Finally parental rights- including rights of parents to teach their children about sex- must be respected. Implementing radical gender ideologies in schools nationwide is NOT the role of the federal government. The Department must reject implementing radical gender ideologies nationwide.

Thank you,

Mr. William Harmond

Acting Director Goldberg

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I am writing to you concerning the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)."

The Title IX Amendments were clearly crafted to give educational opportunities to women and girls. The Biden Administration and the Department have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law. The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

I remember when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. This Department must not violate the privacy of girls.

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys.

Finally parental rights- including rights of parents to teach their children about sex- must be respected. Implementing radical gender ideologies in schools nationwide is NOT the role of the federal government. The Department must reject implementing radical gender ideologies nationwide.

Thank you,

Mrs. Lindsay Betz

Acting Director Goldberg

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I am writing to you concerning the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)."

The Title IX Amendments were clearly crafted to give educational opportunities to women and girls. The Biden Administration and the Department have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law. The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

I remember when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. This Department must not violate the privacy of girls.

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys.

Finally parental rights- including rights of parents to teach their children about sex- must be respected. Implementing radical gender ideologies in schools nationwide is NOT the role of the federal government. The Department must reject implementing radical gender ideologies nationwide.

Thank you,

Mrs. Nancy Mechenbier

Acting Director Goldberg

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I am writing to you concerning the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)."

The Title IX Amendments were clearly crafted to give educational opportunities to women and girls. The Biden Administration and the Department have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law. The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

I remember when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. This Department must not violate the privacy of girls.

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys.

Thank you,

Mrs. Gricel Thomas

Your Department has the opportunity to recommit to protecting the privacy and rights of women and girls in the "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)."

The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

When the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. This Department must not violate the privacy of girls.

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys.

Thank you,

Mrs. Kathleen Giuliano

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I have 5 children, including two girls which may be in line for college athletic scholarships. I am a Conservative Christian, and don't want Sexual Preferences or sex education ideologies taught or encouraged/forced upon students, without our consent through teachers with Liberal agendas or curriculum adopted by Education Departments, to our children during school hours. I also am against biological males being allowed to compete against, or share locker rooms with my athlete girls. I find it dangerous in many ways. I am writing to you concerning the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)."

Acting Director Goldberg

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I am writing to you regarding the U.S. Department of Education's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)."

The Title IX Amendments were meant to give educational opportunities to women and girls. The Biden Administration and the Department of Education have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law. This law must not redefine the original meaning of sex.

The right to privacy of girls must not be violated. Biological boys claiming to be girls is preposterous. They must never be allowed to share showers, locker rooms or hotel rooms with biological boys.

Allowing biological boys, who claim be girls (an absurdity), to compete with girls is unfair, unjust, and immoral. Girls have been and will be cheated out of athletic awards and athletic scholarships, which flies in the face of the intent of the Title IX law!

Furthermore, the rights of parents must be respected regarding teaching their children about sex. Allowing the implementation of radical and unscientific gender ideologies in schools across this country is not government's job. Institutionalizing radical, immoral, and unscientific gender ideology in America by the Department of Education must be totally rejected.

Thank you,

Mr. Greg Jevnikar

The Title IX Amendments were clearly crafted to give educational opportunities to women and girls. The Biden Administration and the Department have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law. The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

I remember when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. This Department must not violate the privacy of girls.

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys.

Finally parental rights- including rights of parents to teach their children about sex- must be respected. Implementing radical gender ideologies in schools nationwide is NOT the role of the federal government. The Department must reject implementing radical gender ideologies nationwide.

Thank you,

Mr. Ronald Yiu

Acting Director Goldberg

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

Good morning.

I am writing to you concerning the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)."

The Title IX Amendments were clearly crafted to give educational opportunities to women and girls. The Biden Administration and this Department have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law. The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

I remember when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. Now these girls are threatened again, and I am imploring you to do all you can to protect vulnerable young women and girls.

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys.

I have a daughter. She is a beautiful seven-year-old. She is confident and creative and smart. She loves sports and school. The policies that the Biden administration is advocating are a direct threat to her safety and opportunities. I also have two sons. I love my sons just as much as I love my daughter, but I would never advocate to broaden their opportunities at the expense of limiting hers. Please fight for my daughter and the millions of girls like her.

Thank you,

Mrs. Kristine Peterson

Acting Director Goldberg

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I am writing to you concerning the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)."

The Title IX Amendments were clearly crafted to give educational opportunities to women and girls. The Biden Administration and the Department have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law. The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

I remember when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. This Department must not violate the privacy of girls.

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys.

Finally parental rights- including rights of parents to teach their children about sex- must be respected. Implementing radical gender ideologies in schools nationwide is NOT the role of the federal government. The Department must reject implementing radical gender ideologies nationwide.

Thank you,

Mrs. Sue Noxsel

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I have 5 children , including two girls which may be in line for college athletic scholarships. I am a Conservative Christian, and don't want Sexual Preferences or sex education ideologies taught or encouraged/forced upon students, without our consent through teachers with Liberal agendas or curriculum adopted by Education Departments, to our children during school hours. I also am against biological males being allowed to compete against, or share locker rooms with my athlete girls. I find it dangerous in many ways. Implementing radical gender ideologies in schools nationwide is NOT the role of the federal government. The Department must reject implementing radical gender ideologies nationwide. It is inappropriate to teach children these views and goes against our constitutional freedoms for how parents want to raise their kids. The school system needs to stick to the basics of reading, writing, math, science, and history and stop trying to parent our children. By implementing more radical curriculum like this you are effectively removing parents from the greatest role they have: choosing to love and parent their children the way they wish to do. Stop forcing this radical agenda down people's throats who have differing viewpoints.

The Biden Administration and the Department have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law. The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

I remember when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. This Department must not violate the privacy of girls.

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys.

Finally parental rights- including rights of parents to teach their children about sex- must be respected. Implementing radical gender ideologies in schools nationwide is NOT the role of the federal government. The Department must reject implementing radical gender ideologies nationwide.

Thank you,

Mr. Steve Burrill

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I am writing to you concerning the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)."

I strongly oppose federal involvement in mandating gender terminology alterations in our school system. According to the Constitution...the enumerated powers of the executive and legislative branches do not include managing a federal Department of Education, much less allow for the federal government to make sweeping changes that need to be made at state and local levels. Please lay off the micromanagement of our school systems. We the People are very capable of stewarding the direction of our schools locally.

The Title IX Amendments are making it dangerous and uncomfortable for my daughter. Teaching our kids about values and newly established...trendy genders is not appropriate and is discriminating against my daughter and our religious beliefs.

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys.

The Title IX Amendments were clearly crafted to give educational opportunities to women and girls. The Biden Administration and the Department have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law. The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

I remember when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. This Department must not violate the privacy of girls.

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys.

In closing, because someone "feels" like a boy does not mean that he should compete with those who are biologically female. Let's keep sports fair, which means letting biological sexes compete against each other.

Thank you,

Dr. Scott La Point

Acting Director Goldberg

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I recently learned that this week, you are holding public hearings regarding the inclusion of "sexual orientation" and "gender identity" in the Title IX Education Amendments of 1972.

It is my understanding that including these policies will force girls to share locker rooms and showers with biological boys. Girls are naturally modest, even around other girls. Now, you are considering allowing boys to be in the same shower and dressing room with them? That will have a detrimental effect on these girls, both psychologically and emotionally, which will also affect them physically. There is also a great likelihood that boys will say they consider themselves a girl just so they can go in the dressing room and look at other girls. This is such a terrible policy!

In addition, how does ANYONE think it is fair for boys to be able to compete against girls? We have made great strides in providing for girls sports because it is common sense to know that boys are much stronger, faster, etc. than girls. What girl is going to be able to beat a boy in athletic sports? She could even be injured by playing in a sport with them. Don't you care about the girls in this country? There is a reason why we don't hear of females saying they want to play against males. They know they will lose.

Men and Women are complex and different individuals. They are different physically, emotionally, psychologically and mentally. Their DNA is different. Changing a few parts of their makeup does not transform their sexuality. It is a known fact that the suicide rate among those who decide to "change" their gender is significantly higher than those who don't. The government should NOT be promoting this behavior.

Changing and creating laws to focus on and include sexual orientation and gender identity is a bad idea. Please carefully consider your desires, and examine the grave consequences of your decisions!

Thank you,

Mrs. Janet Graafsma

Acting Director Goldberg

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I am writing to you concerning the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)."

The Title IX Amendments were clearly crafted to give educational opportunities to women and girls. The Biden Administration and the Department have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law. The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

I remember when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. This Department must not violate the privacy of girls.

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys.

Finally parental rights- including rights of parents to teach their children about sex- must be respected. Implementing radical gender ideologies in schools nationwide is NOT the role of the federal government. The Department must reject implementing radical gender ideologies nationwide.

Thank you,

Mrs. Jenny Weyer

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

Neither science or common sense substantiates or supports the radical changes proposed about sexual orientation or gender identity. It is absurd to think that the requests of a few can be made into law for all. These changes would propagate sexual confusion and perversion in the minds of young people. It is impossible to overlook the physical changes in sporting events just because someone verbalizes a different gender than at birth. I STRONGLY OPPOSE the proposed actions from the Biden Administration.

Finally parental rights- including rights of parents to teach their children about sex- must be respected. Implementing radical gender ideologies in schools nationwide is NOT the role of the federal government. The Department must reject implementing radical gender ideologies nationwide.

The Biden Administration and the Department have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law. The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

I remember when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. This Department must not violate the privacy of girls.

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys.

Finally parental rights- including rights of parents to teach their children about sex- must be respected. Implementing radical gender ideologies in schools nationwide is NOT the role of the federal government. The Department must reject implementing radical gender ideologies nationwide.

Thank you,

Mrs. Linda Scheibelhut

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I am writing to you concerning the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)."

The Title IX Amendments were clearly crafted to give educational opportunities to women and girls. The Biden Administration and the Department have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law. The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

Biological girls often use their athletic abilities to open the doors to colleges and universities which they cannot financially afford. For biological girls to lose out on such opportunities to biological boys would be unconscionable. That totally defeats the purpose of Title IX. I personally know families who would be impacted by this misguided change to current law.

Finally parental rights- including rights of parents to teach their children about sex- must be respected. Implementing radical gender ideologies in schools nationwide is NOT the role of the federal government. The Department must reject implementing radical gender ideologies nationwide.

Thank you,

Acting Director Goldberg

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I am writing to you concerning the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)."

The Title IX Amendments were clearly crafted to give educational opportunities to women and girls. The Biden Administration and the Department have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law. The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls. It's naive to believe that such knee jerk reactions to appease the political and social pressures will not have significant impact in the years and decades to come.

I remember when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. This Department must not violate the privacy of girls, which is going to be rooted in respect and dignity for biologically born girls and women. The rights of these girls and women should also be respected and not marginalized further based on response to liberal agenda.

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys. Such actions will not encourage and empower girls and women in participating in competing sports and activities in the short and long term.

small excessively liberal political agenda.

Acting Director Goldberg

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I am writing to you concerning the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)."

The Title IX Amendments were clearly crafted to give educational opportunities to women and girls. The Biden Administration and the Department have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law. The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

I remember when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. This Department must not violate the privacy of girls.

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys.

Finally parental rights- including rights of parents to teach their children about sex- must be respected. Implementing radical gender ideologies in schools nationwide is NOT the role of the federal government. The Department must reject implementing radical gender ideologies nationwide.

Thank you,

Mrs. Jessica Byers

Acting Director Goldberg

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I am writing to you concerning the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)."

The Title IX Amendments were clearly crafted to give educational opportunities to women and girls. The Biden Administration and the Department have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law. The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

I remember when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. This Department must not violate the privacy of girls.

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys.

Finally parental rights- including rights of parents to teach their children about sex- must be respected. Implementing radical gender ideologies in schools nationwide is NOT the role of the federal government. The Department must reject implementing radical gender ideologies nationwide.

Thank you,

Mrs. Leta Mcculla

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I am writing to you concerning the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)."

The Title IX Amendments were clearly crafted to give educational opportunities to women and girls. The Biden Administration and the Department have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law. The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law. Worse still, the Administration's and the Department's actions harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

I remember when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. This Department is seeking to do something similar to Obama's Administration: force girls' to forfeit opportunities to boys, and take away physical privacy from girls. This Department MUST NOT VIOLATE the privacy of girls.

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are CENSORED by those in power who oppose them. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys.

Finally, and just as important, parental rights (including RIGHTS of parents to teach their children about sex) must be respected. Implementing RADICAL gender ideologies in schools nationwide is NOT the role of the federal government. It is the role of PARENTS to teach their children about the intimate subject of sex. The Department MUST reject implementing radical gender ideologies nationwide.

It is not the government's job to psychologically treat and train our children. It is the public schools job to train themselves, the teachers and administrators, to provide kid's the opportunity to learn. Instead you are seeking to brainwash our children on partisan ideology to fix problems you have. In reality you seek to break children from their parent's influence and teachings without parents knowing. We used to be able to trust our schools but we no longer can. Children are being abused across the country with pedophilic influence in schools. You are abusing our children. You are confusing our children. You seek to place the seeds of division in them, division within themselves and how they relate to their peers. You make government the answer. Do as you are told. You are not teaching them how to think critically, you are teaching them critical ideologies and opinions. You are teaching them what to think. You seek to start at a young age so you can more easily mold and confuse them for your purposes. You do not care about our kids, you care about power and control. Most parents do not have the time or knowledge of what is being placed in their schools. Most don't know a thing about this forum. Are you encouraging schools to advertise and have these forums locally? This forum is a sham. You do not care, you are only fishing for "evidence" to support your agenda. You cancel conservative thinking, any news outlet that doesn't affirm your narrative. Do you think people will be jumping to participate in your forum? If I am wrong, prove it.

The Title IX Amendments were clearly crafted to give educational opportunities to women and girls.

The Biden Administration and the Department have completely ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of the law, and are seeking to use Title IX for purposes never contemplated by Congress. This attempt is illegitimate. In addition it will do actual harm, forcibly violating the privacy of girls and stealing opportunities for women and girls.

Acting Director Goldberg

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I am writing to you concerning the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)."

The Title IX Amendments were clearly crafted to give educational opportunities to women and girls. The Biden Administration and the Department have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law. The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

I remember when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. This Department must not violate the privacy of girls.

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys.

Finally parental rights- including rights of parents to teach their children about sex- must be respected. Implementing radical gender ideologies in schools nationwide is NOT the role of the federal government. The Department must reject implementing radical gender ideologies nationwide.

Thank you,

Mrs. Amy Norwood

I STRONGLY OPPOSE ANY CHANGES in their education policies that redefine "sex" to include "sexual orientation" and "gender identity." Biden's Education Department has no place attempting to implement this radical agenda into every local school district in the country.

Acting Director Goldberg

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

All that is below I fully agree with. This attempt at changing the definition of what it means to be a girl or boy especially for children under the age of 18 is pure and simple child abuse and is anti-scientific and a recruitment tool for the LGBTQ community. If you read any of the original goals of the homosexual activist material you would understand this evil in its purest form. Anyone who would equate a biological boy with a biological girl is just plain ignorant and without any moral integrity.

Acting Director Goldberg

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I am writing to you concerning the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)." I strongly oppose any change made to it.

The recommended changes are not fair to biological women and girls in sports. From inside a mom's womb a child is either bathed in more male or female hormones. Those hormones, regardless of what a person decides they want to be later in life, chemically alter muscles and all body tissue. No amount of given hormones given to change a gender can undo all the body tissue that has already been bathed in the biological hormones since in utero. There needs to be a different way for the sport competition because it is not fair or right for biological females to compete with others who have advantages over them due to years of extra testosterone.

Lastly my parental rights- including rights of parents to teach their children about sex- must be respected. It is NOT the role of the federal government. Please reject the change for federal government to remove my rights as a parent with implementing dangerous gender ideologies in schools nationwide.

Thank you,

Mrs. Deborah Atencio

Many young children are confronted with gender dysphoria during childhood. However, studies show that most revert to their biological gender before adulthood.

It is not the place of educators to interfere with this confusion. That is an issue for parents to address. By suggesting, and more importantly affirming, such thoughts of children adults can be harming these children.

I remember when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. This Department must not violate the privacy of girls.

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys.

Thank you,

Dr. Joy Boone

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I am writing to you concerning the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)."

The Title IX Amendments were clearly crafted to give educational opportunities to women and girls. The Biden Administration and the Department have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law. The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

I grew up in the era in which Title IX began. We would be returning to a time when all sports are men's sports if biological males are competing in categories with women.

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I am writing to you concerning the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)." I strongly oppose any changes in Title IX policies, particularly in the area of redefining "sex" to include gender identity and sexual orientation.

I am sure you know all the opposition arguments. I would not want my daughter to be subjected to seeing male genitalia in her school locker room and shower. Nor would I want her to have to compete against biological males in her sports. Changes to Title IX, which brought so many positive changes for girls, would be unfair and a giant step backward for women's rights.

Respectfully,

Rheba Kelley

Acting Director Goldberg

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I am writing to you concerning the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)."

The Title IX Amendments were clearly crafted to give educational opportunities to women and girls. The Biden Administration and the Department have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law. The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

I remember when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. This Department must not violate the privacy of girls.

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys.

Thank you,

Mr. Michael Reynolds

Acting Director Goldberg

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I am writing to you concerning the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)." It is of utmost importance that women's rights are supported. Women's rights are verbally supported, but then are denied in actuality. Science is absolutely being set aside in this matter. There are only 2 distinct sexes...which is science. Are there people (children) who may struggle with that? Yes and they must be cared for and not bullied, but they are confused and need to have creditable care and understanding in the few cases there are. Other people should not be forced to uphold their misunderstanding as truth. It is not a right to believe what you want (in spite of scientific evidence) and then force or punish people who do not agree. Compassion is always correct, but not support and elevation for a problem.

The Title IX Amendments were clearly crafted to give educational opportunities to women and girls. The Biden Administration and the Department have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law. The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

I respectfully ask you to stand for women's rights and scientific fact rather than political/social pressure in this matter. It is for women's rights that we must take a stand.

Thank you,

Thank you,

Ms. Elaine Richardson

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I am writing to you concerning the Department's Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX).

It was clearly crafted to give educational opportunities to women and girls which this Administration and the Department have clearly ignored. The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls, as well as to plant and fertilize gender confusion among a very susceptible demographic, ie., our young. (Who often in puberty struggle with sexuality issues.)

When the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys, a nationwide injunction stopped it. Again, please do not violate the privacy and rights of girls.

Finally parental rights- including rights of parents to teach their children about sex- must be respected. Implementing radical gender ideologies in schools nationwide is NOT the role of the federal government, and real science (Chromosomes in males being x y and in females being x x) proves there is a difference. The DNA of females is different than that of males. The Department must reject implementing radical gender ideologies nationwide.

Thank you,

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

The Federal Government's proposed changes to Title IX are deeply disturbing to me as a citizen of the United States. I think these changes will be harmful and unfair to my grandchildren and their children, especially the daughters. I also feel these changes will be harmful to the culture of this country. The Biden Administration and the Department have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law. The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

I remember when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. This Department must not violate the privacy of girls.

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys.

Thank you,

Mrs. Rebecca Schlabach

I am writing to you concerning the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)."

The Title IX Amendments were clearly crafted to give educational opportunities to women and girls. The Biden Administration and the Department have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law. The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

I remember when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. This Department must not violate the privacy of girls.

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys.

Thank you,

Mr. Gary Hermenau

I have 2 teen family members that struggle with gender identity because media is messing up their minds to the point they are not sure what their gender is to the point of suicide. It probably wouldn't have even entered their mind about whether or not they were a male or female but because of the left agenda, our children/teens are all screwed up.

The Title IX Amendments were clearly crafted to give educational opportunities to women and girls. The Biden Administration and the Department have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law. The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys.

THIS WOULD BE FORCING AN AGENDA THAT IS AGAINST MY RELIGIOUS BELIEFS AND WOULD BE AGAINST THE SEPARATION OF CHURCH AND STATE because you are forcing your doctrines of belief into our schools.

Thank you,

Dr. Cynthia Hummel

"But whoso shall offend one of these little ones which believe in me, it were better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and that he were drowned in the depth of the sea."
Matthew 18:6

We know God does take seriously the well being of our children. I pray for you as you make decisions that can strongly impact their lives and hearts. I know you take each decision seriously. That is why I need you to know that I strongly oppose any changes in your policy that attempt to redefine "sex".

Forcing this subject in schools is not a right that government has. Parental rights- including rights of parents to teach their children about sex- must be respected. Implementing radical gender ideologies in schools nationwide is NOT the role of the federal government. Please reject implementing radical gender ideologies nationwide.

I remember when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. This Department must not violate the privacy of girls.

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys.

Thank you,

Mr. Michael Nelson

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I am writing to you concerning the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)."

The Title IX Amendments were clearly crafted to give educational opportunities to women and girls. The Biden Administration and the Department have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law. The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

Acting Director Goldberg

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I am writing to you concerning the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)."

I believe that changing Title IX harms girls and women actually depriving them of their rights as women. Forcing girls and young women to share bathrooms, showers, and locker rooms with males puts them in a very vulnerable position for sexual abuse and rape. It is outrageous in my thinking that this would even be considered especially given the increase of sexual assaults and rapes that have occurred in areas where public restrooms have been declared gender less. I strongly support going back to designated male and female restrooms for the safety of all.

The Title IX Amendments were clearly crafted to give educational opportunities to women and girls. The Biden Administration and the Department have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law. The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

Women's rights have made tremendous gains over the years and the redefining of Title IX contributes to removing our identity as women and I believe will denigrate those gains and opportunities leading to further subjugation of women. We can see this happening currently with the entrance of biological males into women's sports, as they usurp women athletes and rob them of their athletic achievements. How will this play out in the work force? This is wrong and should not be allowed.

I strongly oppose any changes to the current Title IX Amendment.

Thank you,

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I am writing to you because of the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)." which I STRONGLY OPPOSE.

There is so much wrong with the idea of sexualizing childhood to the point of placing pressure on children to define their sexuality beyond biological definitions. It is nothing short of abuse and I am very distressed that our children are being forced to process these things. That this abuse is being amplified by being considered as part of a nations education program is base. Let our children be innocent. This position is failing our children. We can look at history and see that our children's mental health is weaker than it has ever been. Let children be children and stop sacrificing their innocence on this altar of progressive politics.

A very concerned mother:

The Biden Administration and the Department have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law. The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

I remember when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. This Department must not violate the privacy of girls.

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys.

Thank you,

Mr. James Day

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

Please read this important message.

I would also like to say the Bible teaches us God created Man in His Image. God also created Women. When a perfect God creates us who are we to change how we were created in the first place? Doesn't gender identity/orientation defy God's word? Do you and me believe and obey His words in Scriptures?

Me and you will have to answer on Judgment Day for our actions on Earth.

What will our answer be on redefining sex? Is it one man and one women like Jesus teaches us?

Acting Director Goldberg

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I am writing to you concerning the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)."

The Title IX Amendments were clearly crafted to give educational opportunities to women and girls. The Biden Administration and the Department have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law. The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

I remember when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. This Department must not violate the privacy of girls.

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys.

Thank you,

Mrs. Nikole Sparacio

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I am writing to you concerning the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)."

The Title IX Amendments were clearly crafted to give educational opportunities to women and girls during my era of school. The Biden Administration and the Department have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law. The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls. Girls are faced with so many pressures relating to their bodies while maturing there is no need in increasing these.

I remember when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. This is utterly degrading and shameful for girls. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. This Department must not violate the privacy of girls.

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. What happened to the majority rights of girls? This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys.

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I am writing to you concerning the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)."

The Title IX Amendments were clearly crafted to give educational opportunities to women and girls. The Biden Administration and the Department have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law. The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

I remember when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. This Department must not violate the privacy of girls.

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys.

Thank you,

Mr. Edwin Barreto

Acting Director Goldberg

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I am writing to you concerning the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)."

There must be a more equitable solution! Just as many businesses have gender neutral bathrooms, we can easily do the same in schools regarding locker rooms and possibly sports. Women's sports were created to give women opportunities that they didn't have because of the (sorry!) biological differences between men and women, which even hormone replacement and surgery do not "remedy."

The Title IX Amendments were clearly crafted to give educational opportunities to women and girls. The Biden Administration and the Department have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law. The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

I remember when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. This Department must not violate the privacy of girls.

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys.

Thank you,

Ms. Sarah Hunter

You are opposing The Will of The God Who Created the Universe and He doesn't take that lightly. Read in His Book of Jeremiah, chapters 40 thru 50, to see how He dealt w/nations that rejected Him in the past. Not a pleasant picture.

You can be sure He will not leave you and our nation unpunished, since you and many leaders of our nation have ignored Him and His Sovereign Will (found in His Holy Bible) over many decades..!

Climate Change?? God is withholding rain and other weather Blessings from America, just as He did when His Chosen People, Israel, ignored Him and followed their own will (Deuteronomy 11:13-32)..!

I remember when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. This Department must not violate the privacy of girls.

Finally parental rights- including the rights of parents to teach their children about sex- must be respected. Implementing radical gender ideologies in schools nationwide is NOT the role of the federal government. The Department must reject implementing radical gender ideologies nationwide.

Schools must NOT add this agenda to the curriculum. I have chosen to remove my son from public schools for this reason. The agenda of the damaging LGBT community is disgusting and I am sharing my voice that it is unacceptable to put this in the mind of children.

Thank you,

Ms. Susan Lang

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I am in agreement with these comments below, but I want to make a point. Parents are the first priority in who you should be serving regarding these decisions. Instead of serving a community whose goal is to indoctrinate OUR children to accept this grooming of having men and boys in girl's locker rooms, you should be serving the parents of students who have the right to privacy and should be allowed to say, "no" to this whole agenda.

I am writing to you concerning the Department's a"Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)."

The Title IX Amendments were clearly crafted to give educational opportunities to women and girls. The Biden Administration and the Department have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law. The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

Acting Director Goldberg

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I am writing concerning the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)."

I strongly appose violating the privacy of my children in school locker rooms and with the education of sex. Each family must determine what they are comfortable with and it is not the governments right to determine what privacy we want each of our children to have.

Parental rights- including rights of parents to teach their children about sex- must be respected. Implementing radical gender ideologies in schools nationwide is NOT the role of the federal government. The Department must reject implementing radical gender ideologies nationwide.

Each parent is responsible to teach their children's what values their family unit will uphold. It is not the role of the government to infringe upon those rights of the family.

Our children will NEVER share a locker room with the opposite sex or be taught about sex by a teacher that does not understand our family's values.

If these policies (different sexes sharing locker rooms and teaching radical gender ideologies in school) would go through it would widen the gap between Americans and force more parents to separate themselves from the public school systems. Many families rely on the public school system for a variety of needs, but if their family values are being attacked they will be forced to look at other school options and it will build a greater gap in our country.

Stop trying to be the family. The government has no place trying to teach our children about what values we will uphold. Start empowering and supporting the family unit and you will see a much better success rate with our children.

Thank you,

Mrs. Marilyn Bartlett

I have 3 daughters and 4 granddaughters, and I don't want them to be put in danger and to have their rights to private restroom, shower, and changing facilities taken away by boys and men being allowed to share these facilities. I also do not want them to face unfair competition in sports by forcing them to compete with biological males who are naturally stronger and faster than they are. I don't want even one penny of my tax dollars to be used for these purposes.

The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

I remember when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. This Department must not violate the privacy of girls.

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys.

Thank you,

Mr. Stephen Stoldt

The Title IX Amendments were clearly crafted to give educational opportunities to women and girls. The Biden Administration and the Department have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law. The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys.

Thank you,

Mr. Eric Ryan

Podium positions are being stolen from girls, scholarships for sports will be in jeopardy.

Our nation is falling BEHIND in educating our nation's children to be scholastically anywhere near the top. This is wrong. I work with international researchers and they are amazed at lack of rigor in our schools. Some return home so their kids don't fall behind. School hours must be focused on teaching the basic skills to advance in complex studies and NOT on politicizing and confusing the children about sexual issues.

Finally parental rights- including rights of parents to teach their children about sex- must be respected. Implementing radical gender ideologies in schools nationwide is NOT the role of the federal government. The Department must reject implementing radical gender ideologies nationwide.

Acting Director Goldberg

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I am writing to you concerning the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)."

The Title IX Amendments were clearly crafted to give educational opportunities to women and girls. The Biden Administration and the Department have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law. The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

I remember when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. This Department must not violate the privacy of girls.

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys.

Thank you,

Mrs. Torrey Lumpe

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I am writing to you concerning the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)."

Our schools need to focus on teaching the basics...reading, writing and math skills...NOT radical political ideologies. Let parents deal with gender issues within the family. This is not an issue for the federal government to force into the schools.

The Title IX Amendments were clearly crafted to give educational opportunities to women and girls. The Biden Administration and the Department have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law. Acting Director Goldberg

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I am writing to you concerning the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)."

The Title IX Amendments were clearly crafted to give educational opportunities to women and girls. The Biden Administration and the Department have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law. The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

I remember when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. This Department must not violate the privacy of girls.

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys.

Thank you,

Mr. Joshua Neske

I strongly oppose teaching radical, unscientific nonsense to our children. It is a type of child abuse to make young children worry about their sexuality before they even approach puberty. The federal government should not be making mandates that support this kind of abuse.

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

It is wrong and unconstitutional to force teachers and students to violate their conscience and religious values. They should not be forced to use transgender pronouns or share a restroom or locker room with someone of the opposite gender. Allowing transgender males to compete in women's sports is unfair to women, and a setback in the battle for women's rights.

I remember when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. This Department must not violate the privacy of girls.

Thank you,

Mr. Robert Sarratt

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I am writing to you concerning the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)."

The Title IX Amendments were clearly crafted to give educational opportunities to women and girls. The Biden Administration and the Department have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law. The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

In Conclusion, it is imperative that the government not overstep their role and duty to allow such personal matters to be taken out of the hands of parents and families. Government overreach is abhorrent in our country today and in NO WAY reflects the freedoms our founding fathers fought and died for. You cannot and will never be able to legislate every "problem" our culture encounters. It is up to individuals to conduct themselves and not be legislated and brainwashed to believe an ideology that goes against their core beliefs.

The Biden Administration and the Department have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law. The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

I remember when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. This Department must not violate the privacy of girls.

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys.

Thank you,

Mr. Steve Plate

The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

I remember when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. This Department must not violate the privacy of girls.

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys.

Thank you,

Mr. Lyle Middendorf

It is the right & responsibility of their own family members to train their children according to their beliefs. To do otherwise is unconstitutional and a gross overreach of Federal power & influence. My children are not, & never shall be, surrendered to a liberal agenda of misinformation, reeducation, experimentation, exploitation, manipulation or modeling of your view of history, society, globalism & socialist aspirations. In the name of "equality" you are stomping on the rights of safety, opportunities & true equality for the females in America. To enact this bill would be blatant injustice & assault to this nation.

Acting Director Goldberg

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I am writing to you concerning the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)."

We worked so hard to give girls and women the same opportunities as men. The Title IX Amendments were clearly crafted to give these educational opportunities to women and girls. The Biden Administration and the Department have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law. The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls. There's so much focus 'equality' these days, doesn't Title IX do just that? Make opportunities more equal?

I remember when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. This Department must not violate the privacy of girls. We cannot change biology. We need to follow the science and there's nothing more basic than the biology of all humans, male and female.

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys (who feel like they are a girl) are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys.

Aren't there other more important topics that the Department should be discussing at this time? Why is gender identity, a mental illness diagnosis (Gender Dysphoria) at the top of the list? Will people who are manic or depressed or have addictions get special rights as well? Where is this leading? I pray everyday for people who are ill, mentally and physically. I mean no disrespect. People can 'feel' however they want, but they shouldn't force their individual and personal feelings about themselves on everyone else. That person needs to accept who they are, male or female, no matter how they 'feel'. Gender identity is different from gender expression...perhaps this is where things get muddled.

I am opposed to the Department using my tax dollars in this way.

Thank you,

Ms. Jennifer Campbell

The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

I remember when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. This Department must not violate the privacy of girls.

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys.

Thank you,

Ms. Annie Danielson

Acting Director Goldberg

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I am writing to you concerning the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)."

The Title IX Amendments were clearly crafted to give educational opportunities to women and girls. The Biden Administration and the Department have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law. The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

I remember when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. This Department must not violate the privacy of girls.

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys.

Thank you,

Mr. David Clark

Maybe this behavior is normal in your world but for the majority of Americans we are against this unwholesome behavior. Girls dont shower with boys and boys dont shower with girls.They dont shower with adults and we dont give pedophiles access to our kids willingly. Adults of opposite sex do not belong in bathrooms with opposite sex children unless they are their parents.Girls are girls and should be in sports with girls and boys with boys. Dont push your insane agenda on Americans and their families! It is disgusting and plain wrong!! You want to know how President Trump became President honestly and by a landslide? He listened to the majority.The majority still have values and morals. Freedom doesnt mean everything is okay to do. Stop selling our country and families and citizens out.

I have two girls and two boys. Even if my boys were identifying as a girl, there is no denying that they are built differently and I would not allow them to compete against girls. It's not fair to the girls. They are blessed to live in a country that would give them the voice to express their choices, but that does not always mean that they should. Our selfish society is all about "I deserve ____". That's BS. Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys. There is an old saying that "you can't ride two horses with one ass." I think that fits perfectly to this situation. You have to choose.

Finally parental rights- including rights of parents to teach their children about sex- must be respected. Implementing radical gender ideologies in schools nationwide is NOT the role of the federal government. The Department must reject implementing radical gender ideologies nationwide. Our sexual orientation has become public discussion and it's killing our kids. Social media has made it

view-worthy to be depressed, anxiety-ridden and suicidal. And the response??? Crazy suicide rates among our youth. You won't go after social media because it is big bucks. Greed. Is this the real, live "Purge"? Unless people with common sense start to speak up to the loud minority, I think so. Doing my best to take care of mine and it is getting harder by the day.
