Acting Director Goldberg

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I am writing to you concerning the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)."

The Title IX Amendments were clearly crafted to give educational opportunities to women and girls. The Biden Administration and the Department have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law. The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

I remember when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. This Department must not violate the privacy of girls.

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys.

Finally parental rights- including rights of parents to teach their children about sex- must be respected. Implementing radical gender ideologies in schools nationwide is NOT the role of the federal government. The Department must reject implementing radical gender ideologies nationwide.

Thank you,

Mrs. Cherie Davis

The Biden Administration and the Department have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law. The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls. Protect girls and women from the intrusiveness of men & boys - whatever or whomever they think they are.

I remember when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. This Department must not violate the privacy of girls.

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys. Do not allow biological boys and men to compete against girls and women. This gives an unfair advantage to the males over females. Protect females rights to privacy.

Finally parental rights- including rights of parents to teach their children about sex- must be respected. Implementing radical gender ideologies in schools nationwide is NOT the role of the federal government. The Department must reject implementing radical gender ideologies nationwide.

The education of our children is an important task. While our country struggles with CRT & radical gender ideology other countries' students far out perform our students in math & reading. The dept of education should be focused on teaching our children to be good citizens who contribute to the value of our country by learning how to think and work using math, science, reading and writing and traditional US History that focuses on the GOOD & positive aspects of America and positive rather than someone's interpretation of the bad. Our Founders should be revered for the country they created. Not demonized because of their faults.

The Dept of education should make it clear that the parent's role in their child's education is even more important than any teacher or school.

STOP The radicalization of our children citizens of the USA. STOP pushing the radical agenda of the Democratic Party in the classroom.

Thank you,

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I am writing to you concerning the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)."

I am both the mother of a daughter and and grandma to 2 granddaughters so I have a personal passion concerning this issue and the negative effect it will have on my female family members.

The Title IX Amendments were clearly crafted to give educational opportunities to women and girls. Acting Director Goldberg

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

As a woman, a former high school athlete and a mother of two young boys and a baby girl, I am writing to you concerning the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)."

The Title IX Amendments were clearly crafted to give educational opportunities to women and girls. The Biden Administration and the Department of Education have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law. The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse-harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

I am dumbfounded that the Department of Education and the Administration are actually considering taking actions that would violate the privacy of girls and women across the nation. That is putting approximately half our country's population at risk for violence against them, harassment, and other invasions of privacy by biological males who will take advantage of the situation.

As a starter on my high school soccer team, I am very grateful for the opportunities the sport gave me to improve and challenge myself physically, mentally and emotionally. And I am very aware of the fact that there are biological physiological differences between males and females. The majority of biological women physically cannot compete on the same level as biological males. I am horrified that girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys.

Finally, parental rights--including the rights of parents to teach their children about sex in a way that the parents know their child will understand at a time when the parents know their child is ready to handle such information--MUST be respected. Implementing radical gender ideologies in schools nationwide is NOT the role of the federal government. The Department must reject implementing radical gender ideologies nationwide.

It appears more and more that the primary purpose of public schools is to promote political agendas rather than to educate in the basic subjects--reading, writing and math. As such, myself and a number of families I know have lost faith in public education. If it continues on this track and the privacy and rights of girls in our schools is trumped in the name of radical gender ideologies, we will quickly be looking to other institutions for our children's education.

Thank you,

Mrs. Jennifer Hutchison

I remember when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. This Department must not violate the privacy of girls.

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys.

Finally parental rights- including rights of parents to teach their children about sex- must be respected. Implementing radical gender ideologies in schools nationwide is NOT the role of the federal government. The Department must reject implementing radical gender ideologies nationwide.

Thank you,

Ms. Linda Parsonson

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I am writing to you concerning the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)."

The Title IX Amendments were clearly crafted to give educational opportunities to women and girls. The Biden Administration and the Department have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law. The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

I remember when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. This Department must not violate the privacy of girls.

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys.

Finally parental rights- including rights of parents to teach their children about sex- must be respected. Implementing radical gender ideologies in schools nationwide is NOT the role of the federal government. The Department must reject implementing radical gender ideologies nationwide.

Thank you,

Mrs. Danetta Wilson

The Biden Administration and the Department have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law. The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

I remember when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. This Department must not violate the privacy of girls.

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys.

Finally parental rights- including rights of parents to teach their children about sex- must be respected. Implementing radical gender ideologies in schools nationwide is NOT the role of the federal government. The Department must reject implementing radical gender ideologies nationwide.

Thank you,

Ms. Nancy Bradley

Acting Director Goldberg

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I am writing to you concerning the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)."

The Title IX Amendments were clearly crafted to give educational opportunities to women and girls. The idea that the concept of biological sex should be replaced with "sexual orientation" or "gender identity" is ridiculous nonsense. The physical differences between those who are biological males and those who are biological females must be respected, and each group's privacy must be protected.

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys. That amounts to illegal gender discrimination.

Finally parental rights- including rights of parents to teach their children about sex- must be respected. Implementing radical gender ideologies in schools nationwide is NOT the role of the federal government. The Department must reject implementing radical gender ideologies nationwide.

Do NOT roll back the clock on progress for girls and women.

Thank you,

Mr. Craig Stephan

The Title IX Amendments were clearly crafted to give educational opportunities to women and girls. The Biden Administration and the Department have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law. The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

I remember when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. This Department must not violate the privacy of girls.

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys.

Finally parental rights- including rights of parents to teach their children about sex- must be respected. Implementing radical gender ideologies in schools nationwide is NOT the role of the federal government. The Department must reject implementing radical gender ideologies nationwide.

Thank you,

Mrs. Deanne Kubly

I am writing to you concerning the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)."

The Title IX Amendments were clearly crafted to give educational opportunities to women and girls. The Biden Administration and the Department have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law. The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

I remember when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. This Department must not violate the privacy of girls.

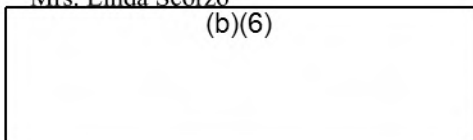

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys.

Finally parental rights- including rights of parents to teach their children about sex- must be respected. Implementing radical gender ideologies in schools nationwide is NOT the role of the federal government. The Department must reject implementing radical gender ideologies nationwide.

Thank you,

Mrs. Becky Jones

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I am sending this to you concerning the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)."

The Title IX Amendments were clearly crafted to give educational opportunities to women and girls. The Biden Administration and the Department have ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law. The Administration's and the Department's show their rush to redefine law, harm privacy and take opportunities for women and girls.

I remember when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. This Department must not violate the privacy of girls.

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys. This harms our girls.

Finally parental rights- including rights of parents to teach their children about sex- must be respected. Implementing radical gender ideologies in schools nationwide is NOT the role of the federal government. The Department must reject implementing radical gender ideologies nationwide.

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

As a mother, educator, and concerned taxpayer, I am writing to you concerning the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)."

The Title IX Amendments were clearly crafted to give educational opportunities to women and girls. Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys. More harm than good would come from this potential law.

Finally parental rights- including rights of parents to teach their children about sex- must be respected. Implementing radical gender ideologies in schools nationwide is NOT the role of the federal government. There is way more academic curriculum that needs to be covered than pushing controversial ideology. The Department must absolutely reject implementing radical gender ideologies nationwide.

Children are changable, impressionable & most of all innocent. It is the responsibility of every adult to protect the minds & bodies of our youngest at all costs, until they are grown enough to rightly decide for themselves. Don't lie to children. Give them a chance to learn who THEY are. The thought that ANY adult would dare try to talk an impressionable innocent child into changing themselves, or believe that they are in the wrong body, or train a child to be less than who they were created to be is unconscionable. At the very least, our government should provide laws that protect our innocent, that stand with parents to protect their children, and provide mental & physical safety, free from liberal agendas that seek to destroy their minds & bodies before they are adult enough to decide for themselves.

Acting Director Goldberg

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I am writing to you concerning the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)."

The Title IX Amendments were clearly crafted to give educational opportunities to women and girls. The Biden Administration and the Department have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law. The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

I remember when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. This Department must not violate the privacy of girls.

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys.

Finally parental rights- including rights of parents to teach their children about sex- must be respected. Implementing radical gender ideologies in schools nationwide is NOT the role of the federal government. The Department must reject implementing radical gender ideologies nationwide.

Thank you,

Mrs. Rhonda Chapman

Acting Director Goldberg

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I would like to voice concern about President Biden's potential Title IX changes to include sexual orientation and gender identity in the national education policies.

Girls are girls and boys are boys - It is a matter of science. They are born a boy or a girl, and will remain a boy or a girl for their entire lives, regardless of the clothing they wear or the surgeries they attain. Boys cannot be allowed to compete or play on a girl's sporting team, they cannot be allowed to change in the girl's locker rooms, and they cannot use the girl's bathroom, just because they "feel like a woman" as Shania Twain sang years ago.

Parents are the primary teachers of their children, and therefore they shouldn't have to fight with schools to avoid their children being subjected to radical gender ideologies. The Department of Education needs to stick to the basics - Reading, writing, mathematics, science, and social studies. This is what our children need to be taught so they can make it in the world with a good job.

Please reject implementing radical gender ideologies nationwide, for the good of our children and society.

Sincerely,
Karen Nevin

Acting Director Goldberg

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I am writing to you concerning the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)."

I remember the hard-fought battles to get equal educational opportunities for girls and young women before Title IX came into being. For us females students, there were no programs, no equal academic opportunities, no equal athletic opportunities or spending, no extra-curricular equality of opportunity or funding. After years of effort by our mothers, our grandmothers, our aunts and those sympathetic with the cause of true equality, female students could finally study, train, compete, and excel inside and outside the classroom.

Proposed changes to policy would absolutely negate all these victories, putting us back in the dark ages of all-male dominated opportunities, funding, and accomplishment. Even more disturbing is the threat to the very well-being and safety of girls and collegiate women athletes by forcing them to share locker rooms, hotel rooms, bathrooms, and shower facilities with male students. This opens the door to abuse, molestation, and rape.

Every time a girl or female college competitor is replaced on a podium of victory by a boy or man claiming to be a female, freedom fades. Female athletes lose recognition, they lose scholarships, they lose opportunities to compete in national and international events, including the Olympics. If this trend continues, there will be no sports for women. And the standards are shockingly low; a boy merely has to say he's a girl to compete against females; he doesn't have to have started any sex reassignment surgeries or injections. He just has to say it, and if a female athlete protests or seeks redress with school officials or in court, most often she is ignored or silenced.

We say: follow the science. Science tells us that every child's gender is determined at conception. In addition to reproductive differences, there are more than 200 differences between male and female that include general height and strength, differing centers of gravity, hormonal differences, bone shape, bone length and mass, muscle mass, that all contribute to women's rights to compete on a level playing field exclusively with other females.

The gender ideologies and identities that say we can pick our own gender are not scientific. Sexual dysphoria may affect children from time to time, but most kids grow out of it. It is pure child abuse to even teach a child that they can change their gender; it is mutilation, abuse, and health-threatening to allow or administer sex reassignment therapies to any child before he or she reaches maturity, and dangerous even for adults.

I am a woman who benefited from Title IX, passed just as I entered high school. I am grateful my daughters had all the opportunities that were in their infancy when I was young. I am appalled that these opportunities may be ripped away from my granddaughters who are now in school, and that their health and safety could be threatened by these foolish and misogynistic policies. It is the worst, the most dangerous kind of male chauvinism. Please do not take the teeth out of Title IX. Please protect our daughters, their opportunities, their educations, their sports, and all of their extra-curricular activities. I appreciate your attention to this matter.

Thank you,

Ms. Elizabeth Stone

I STRONGLY OPPOSE ANY CHANGES in education policies that redefine "sex" to include "sexual orientation" and "gender identity."

In my opinion, the radical changes being considered by the Administration and the Department will do great harm to girls and women and also boys and families in our nation. My wife agrees. We are both grieved by these proposed changes. Please do not make these changes.

Acting Director Goldberg

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I am writing to you concerning the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)."

The Title IX Amendments were clearly crafted to give more balanced/equal educational and athletic opportunities to women and girls. The Biden Administration and the Department have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law and they are going beyond that which is reasonable and even proper. The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls. I strongly oppose these new changes!

I remember when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. This Department must not violate the privacy of girls. Passing a highly inappropriate measure like this will surely create far more problems than it could possibly solve, and it exposes girls to embarrassing and horrific circumstances that they should NOT have to endure!

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys. It is hugely disadvantageous to girls to permit hormonally, biologically, and physiologically male athletes to compete as "girls" just because of what they feel. It tips the scales in their favor, and makes the "competition" unfair. While their feelings may say one thing, their biological makeup says another.

Finally parental rights- including rights of parents to teach their children about sex- must be respected. Our nation has overstepped the bounds of parental rights and responsibilities already in this area. Implementing radical gender ideologies in schools nationwide is NOT the role of the federal government and further violates parents' rights and privacy. The Department must reject implementing radical gender ideologies nationwide.

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I am writing to you concerning the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)."

The Title IX Amendments were clearly crafted to give educational opportunities to women and girls. The Biden Administration and the Department have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law. The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

I remember when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. This Department must not violate the privacy of girls.

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys.

Finally parental rights- including rights of parents to teach their children about sex- must be respected. Implementing radical gender ideologies in schools nationwide is NOT the role of the federal government. The Department must reject implementing radical gender ideologies nationwide.

Thank you,

Ms. Ella Lesure

Acting Director Goldberg

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I am writing to you concerning the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)."

The Title IX Amendments were clearly crafted to give educational opportunities to women and girls. The Biden Administration and the Department have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law. The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

I remember when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. This Department must not violate the privacy of girls.

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys.

Finally parental rights- including rights of parents to teach their children about sex- must be respected. Implementing radical gender ideologies in schools nationwide is NOT the role of the federal government. The Department must reject implementing radical gender ideologies nationwide.

Thank you,

Mrs. Joanne Hansen

Finally parental rights- including rights of parents to teach their children about sex- must be respected. Implementing radical gender ideologies in schools nationwide is NOT the role of the federal government. The Department must reject implementing radical gender ideologies nationwide. Please, please recognize the truth that there are God-given, biological, physiological differences between boys and girls and that that is a good thing. Those physical differences are to be honored and respected. One gender is not better than the other. Allowing boys to shower with girls or vice versus is totally inappropriate just as it would be and is to have boys competing against girls in athletic completions, which totally negates the essential practice and purpose of Fair Play. Sexual training/education is to be dealt with in a careful, considerate and respectful way that values the importance of relationship between a man and a woman expressed in the most intimate of ways and that is sexual. Sexual understanding should not be left to a government program, nor to a public/ parochial school for it simply is not its proper place or function! Thank you very much for your time and consideration. It's His Grace, James S. Sampson

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys. Girls/women are still battling for their equal rights; this will put them further behind.

Lastly - but very importantly, parental rights- including rights of parents to teach their children about sex- must be respected. Implementing radical gender ideologies in schools nationwide is NOT the role of the federal government. The Department must reject implementing radical gender ideologies nationwide. Again, I say, this is NOT the job of the federal government, but of parents.

Thank you,

Ms. Amy Richardson

Acting Director Goldberg

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I am writing to you concerning the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)."

The Title IX Amendments were clearly crafted to give educational opportunities to women and girls. The Biden Administration and the Department have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law. The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

I remember when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. This Department must not violate the privacy of girls.

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys.

Finally parental rights- including rights of parents to teach their children about sex- must be respected. Implementing radical gender ideologies in schools nationwide is NOT the role of the federal government. The Department must reject implementing radical gender ideologies nationwide.

Thank you,

Mrs. Mary Kemp

Acting Director Goldberg

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I am writing about the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)." With regards to "updating" Title IX I feel that education should stay out of forcing our children to hear about sexual choices in the school system. It should be left to their family to explain.

With regards to sports, it is unfair to have biological boys allowed to compete against girls. Biologically, in most cases, boys have an advantage over girls. Let's not steal what girls/women have worked so hard to accomplish!

At this point, it appears that the federal govt. is protecting the rights of the few transgender vs. the masses who are not transgender. Why? Should the federal govt. even be taking on such issues? To be fair to all why not let those who identify as transgender compete among themselves? It would level the playing field without taking from the young women.

Thank you for your time and consideration.

Thank you,

Mrs. Deidre Dunlap

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I STRONGLY OPPOSE ANY CHANGES in your education policies that redefine "sex" to include "sexual orientation" and "gender identity." Biden's Education Department has no place attempting to implement this radical agenda into every local school district in the country.

The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

I remember when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. This Department must not violate the privacy of girls.

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys.

Finally parental rights- including rights of parents to teach their children about sex- must be respected. Implementing radical gender ideologies in schools nationwide is NOT the role of the federal government. The Department must reject implementing radical gender ideologies nationwide.

Thank you,

Mrs. Sandra Hatch

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I am writing to you concerning the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)."

I strongly oppose the Department of Education's proposal to define "sex" to include sexual orientation and gender identity in its policies regarding enforcement of Title IX. To do so would pose a danger to women and children, and it would discriminate against females and persons of faith.

The Title IX Amendments were clearly crafted to give educational opportunities to women and girls. Acting Director Goldberg

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I am writing to you concerning the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)."

I strongly oppose changes to our education policies in America's school system that redefines "sex" to include "sexual orientation" and "gender identity." President Biden's Education Department has no place attempting to implement this radical agenda into our nation's school system.

It's hard enough to be a kid today, why would you complicate and confuse children more?

Why would you push the youngest of our society to learn about and encourage them to make adult decisions concerning their bodies and sexuality? Children are too young and not equipped to make a choice that will possibly change to trajectory of their lives. Would you give a child poison that smells like cotton candy and trust that he wouldn't be curious to taste it? What an absurd idea.

Childhood is the most sacred time in human development, and children should be kept innocent throughout their early developmental years. Title IX is destructive.

I beg you to stop using our children as pawns in the radical Gay Rights agenda.

I also implore you to give up the idea of forcing children to share locker rooms, showers, and restrooms it's wrong no matter what the age. How can an idea like this could be of value to our little ones? It is a violation of everything that is pure and sweet and innocent.

Going to school is scary enough with fear and anxiety of being bullied in the halls, abused on the school bus, or killed by a gunman in the classroom why is this horrible idea even being considered?

When my own (b)(6) was (b)(6) years old, my small, timid little girl was overpowered by a large boy who was just a year older than she. He held her little hands behind her back, pushed her against the wall, and shoved his tongue into her mouth. I suppose he wanted to try something he had seen on tv or in real life who knows, but it shouldn't have happened.

Girls feel awkward and frightened enough around boys especially bullies who take great pleasure in hurting other children, mentally or physically. Children shouldn't be forced into an environment that will cause angst, thus causing possible mental disorders. Please value our children and fight for them and their innocence.

Finally parental rights- including rights of parents to teach their children about sex- must be respected. Implementing radical gender ideologies in schools nationwide is NOT the role of the federal government. The Department must reject implementing radical gender ideologies nationwide.

Thank you,

Mrs. Teresa Foster

Acting Director Goldberg

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I am writing to you concerning the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)."

The Title IX Amendments were clearly crafted to give educational opportunities to women and girls. The Biden Administration and the Department have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law. The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

I remember when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. This Department must not violate the privacy of girls.

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys.

Finally parental rights- including rights of parents to teach their children about sex- must be respected. Implementing radical gender ideologies in schools nationwide is NOT the role of the federal government. The Department must reject implementing radical gender ideologies nationwide.

Thank you,

Mrs. Cathy Robben

Acting Director Goldberg

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I am writing to you concerning the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)."

I STRONGLY OPPOSE ANY CHANGES in the education policies that redefine "sex" to include "sexual orientation" and "gender identity." Biden's Education Department has no place attempting to implement this radical agenda into every local school district in the country.

Thank you,

Mrs. Mary Williams RN

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I am writing to you concerning the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)."

The Title IX Amendments were clearly crafted to give educational opportunities to women and girls. The Biden Administration and the Department have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law. The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

I remember when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. This Department must not violate the privacy of girls.

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys.

Finally parental rights- including rights of parents to teach their children about sex- must be respected. Implementing radical gender ideologies in schools nationwide is NOT the role of the federal government. The Department must reject implementing radical gender ideologies nationwide.

Thank you,

Mrs. SHELIA RYLE

The fact remains that teaching sexual identity and behaviors are within the rights and spheres of each family and should not be mandated by special interests groups or the government. How the family chooses to teach them and enlist the help of outside sources is up to them, the family, not the government.

Acting Director Goldberg

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I am writing to you concerning the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)."

The Title IX Amendments were clearly crafted to give educational opportunities to women and girls. The Biden Administration and the Department have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law. The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

I remember when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. This Department must not violate the privacy of girls.

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys.

Finally parental rights- including rights of parents to teach their children about sex- must be respected. Implementing radical gender ideologies in schools nationwide is NOT the role of the federal government. The Department must reject implementing radical gender ideologies nationwide.

Thank you,

Mr. Herb Shaffer

Acting Director Goldberg

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I am writing to you concerning the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)."

Your radical policies are dangerous to our youth, and particularly discriminatory to girls. Your pandering to the LGBTQ community MUST Stop! No one cares what others choose to do behind closed doors, but forcing anyone else to be marginalized for disagreeing with the "gender identity is fluid" crowd is unconstitutional and damaging to personal rights. This nonsense, and critical race theory, are both destructive to our Republic, and to the emotional development of children. STOP YOUR PERVERSE AGENDA! I STRONGLY OPPOSE ANY CHANGES THAT REDEFINE "SEX" TO INCLUDE "GENDER IDENTITY" OR "SEXUAL ORIENTATION"!!!

The Title IX Amendments were clearly crafted to give educational opportunities to women and girls. The Biden Administration and the Department have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law. The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

I remember when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. This Department must not violate the privacy of girls.

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys.

Finally parental rights- including rights of parents to teach their children about sex- must be respected. Implementing radical gender ideologies in schools nationwide is NOT the role of the federal government. The Department must reject implementing radical gender ideologies nationwide.

Thank you,

Mrs. Sienna Wells

It is very dangerous for the Executive Branch of government to begin adding new meanings to existing laws that were passed in 1972. That is the role on Congress and our legislative system.

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys.

Finally parental rights- including rights of parents to teach their children about sex- must be respected. Implementing radical gender ideologies in schools nationwide is NOT the role of the federal government and will backfire on our future in the end with the destruction of many families in the wake. The Department must reject implementing radical gender ideologies nationwide.

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I'm not sure why a party that is so driven by science has a difficult time following the science on this one. I suspect that you mean faux science or your definition of it, since you seem to be refining everything as you see fit.

So today I am writing to you concerning the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)."

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys. This is discriminatory.

Finally parental rights- including rights of parents to teach their children about sex- must be respected. Implementing radical gender ideologies in schools nationwide is NOT the role of the federal government. The Department must reject implementing radical gender ideologies nationwide. The government must stop its assault on the American family.

Acting Director Goldberg

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I am writing to you concerning the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)." I am adamantly opposed to any redefinition of "sex." Sexual orientation and gender identity terms have NO place in regulations pertaining to the nation's schools.

The Title IX Amendments were clearly crafted to give educational opportunities to women and girls. As the mother of 3 adult girls and the grandmother of a 3 year old granddaughter, I am deeply concerned and strongly opposed to proposed changes to Title IX that undermine the very purpose of it. The idea of redefining "sex" to mean "sexual orientation" and gender identity " is nothing but a political grab for power and is laughable in the face of scientific facts; it is an attempt to force a leftist ideology on all of the nation's schools without voter consent.

The proposed changes are also a threat to the very safety and privacy of women and girls nationwide in allowing biological males into the private spaces of females: bathrooms, locker rooms, showers, dorm rooms and hotel rooms of traveling teams, to mention a few. This a terrifying specter for me personally as well as for my daughters and granddaughter.

When Target changed their policy to allow men into women's restrooms in response to the Obama administration's changes to the Title IX regulations, I quit shopping at Target and even now will not shop there. For an administration that touts their support of women, the proposed changes of "sex" to include sexual orientation and gender identity is a monstrous betrayal and loss of decades of advancement in the fundamental true opportunity and equality rights of women (not the faux rights that the left puts forth.)

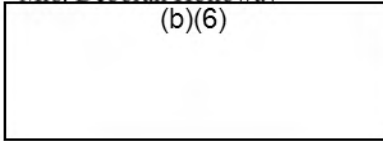

My girls were all actively involved in high school sports. I expect the same opportunities to be available to my granddaughter. To think of her having to compete against boys to get a spot on the basketball team is a travesty. It is an obvious fact that boys and men are always stronger than females; it's imprinted in their DNA and no amount of medical tampering erases that fact or changes male DNA. It's Science 101. To purport otherwise is a blatant lie and an act of war against women.

Finally parental rights- including rights of parents to teach their children about sex- must be respected. Implementing radical gender ideologies in schools nationwide is NOT the role of the federal government. The Department must reject implementing radical gender ideologies nationwide.

Acting Director Goldberg

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I am writing to you concerning the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)."

The Title IX Amendments were clearly crafted to give educational opportunities to women and girls. The Biden Administration and the Department have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law. The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

I remember when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. This Department must not violate the privacy of girls.

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys.

Finally parental rights- including rights of parents to teach their children about sex- must be respected. Implementing radical gender ideologies in schools nationwide is NOT the role of the federal government. The Department must reject implementing radical gender ideologies nationwide.

Thank you,

Mrs. Nancy Woodford

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

Please do not make changes to Title IX. We need to protect the privacy and opportunities of women and girls. Girls and boys are different and it is completely unfair and wrong to force girls to compete with boys.

Further, parental rights, including rights of parents to teach their children about sex, must be respected. Implementing radical gender ideologies in schools nationwide is NOT the role of the federal government. The Department must reject implementing radical gender ideologies nationwide.

Acting Director Goldberg

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I am writing to you concerning the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)."

I ask that you protect the hard-won rights of our girls. As a parent of several athletes, the stark differences in middle and high school students' physical capabilities are readily apparent. For example, one of my (b)(6) is the (b)(6). His female counterpart, who is nonetheless dramatically faster than all of the other females in the conference and is highly talented in her sports, still would be completely outmatched and denied the opportunities to place if forced to compete against biological males. And, she is the (b)(6). Let alone the hundreds of other girls who strive diligently for athletic prowess. Changing Title IX is a dramatic step backwards for the rights of women and girls.

Finally, parents, NOT the national or state government should have the right to determine what teachings their children have in terms of gender ideologies. This is a conversation for in the home, and to force this through the schools is a violation of parental rights, as well as as unfair imposition upon the religious beliefs of many.

Thank you,

Dr. Elizabeth Tomlinson

The Title IX Amendments were clearly crafted to give educational opportunities to women and girls. The Biden Administration and the Department have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law. The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

I remember when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. This Department must not violate the privacy of girls.

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys.

Finally parental rights- including rights of parents to teach their children about sex- must be respected. Implementing radical gender ideologies in schools nationwide is NOT the role of the federal government. The Department must reject implementing radical gender ideologies nationwide.

Thank you,

Mrs. Cindy Millard

Acting Director Goldberg

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

It is right, good and fair to the girls and young women of America to maintain their privacy by prohibiting men from entering their locker rooms showers! While the "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing is gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)," I want you to see the impropriety of forcing females to share their private space with men!

The Title IX Amendments were clearly crafted to give educational opportunities to women and girls. The Biden Administration and the Department have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law. The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls. Women and girls should not be forced to compete with biological males. Men are inherently stronger than women and their legs are longer. Such competition is grossly unfair! It has been show that women will never win any races when the compete with men and therefore will not receive scholarships! This department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys.

Finally parental rights- including rights of parents to teach their children about sex- must be respected. Implementing radical gender ideologies in schools nationwide is NOT the role of the federal government. The Department must reject implementing radical gender ideologies nationwide.

Thank you,

Acting Director Goldberg

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I am writing to you concerning the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)."

I am letting you know that I vehemently oppose any changes in the Department of Education's Title IX policies that would redefine sex to include sexual orientation and gender identity. Parental rights- including rights of parents to teach their children about sex- must be respected. It is not the Department of Education's responsibility to teach this nation's children radical left-wing political policies concerning sex. That is best handled at home by parents. Parents can and should teach their children what they want to at home.

The Title IX Amendments were clearly crafted to give educational opportunities to women and girls. The Biden Administration and the Department have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law. The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

I remember when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. This Department must not violate the privacy of girls. If you decide to go along with this type of policy, girls will be put into situations that could lead to increased risk of them being sexually assaulted and raped. With women coming so far today in the equal rights movement and the "Me Too" movement, this would just open the door for women to be threatened once again from things they should be protected from. It would clearly be a step in the wrong direction.

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys and should not censor them for their opinions and values.

Implementing radical gender ideologies in schools nationwide is NOT the role of the federal government. The Department must reject implementing radical gender ideologies nationwide. It is up to the parents to teach their children what they want them to know about sexual orientation and gender identity. It is not the Department of Education's job to do this.

Thank you,

I remember when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. This Department must not violate the privacy of girls.

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys.

Finally parental rights- including rights of parents to teach their children about sex- must be respected. Implementing radical gender ideologies in schools nationwide is NOT the role of the federal government. The Department must reject implementing radical gender ideologies nationwide.

Thank you,

Ms. Shelley Surber

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I am writing to you concerning the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)."

The Title IX Amendments were clearly crafted to give educational opportunities to women and girls. The Biden Administration and the Department have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law. The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

This is going to lead to sexual abuse & rape of girls for one thing. It's too dangerous to put boys & girls together at that age. You're asking for trouble.

It is also not fair for boys to compete in girl's sports! Rights for females are being totally obliterated. The government needs to stay out of the schools.

This administration is screwing this country up. They are pulling too far away from God and what our country was founded on. I have never been so sickened and ashamed of what's happening in America

I WANT MY COUNTRY BACK!!! The way it's supposed to be.

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

Acting Director Goldberg

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I am writing to you concerning the US Department of Education's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)."

I want to say that I strongly oppose any changes in our education policies that redefine "sex" to include "sexual orientation" and "gender identity." Implementing radical gender ideologies in schools nationwide is not the role of our federal government. The US Department of Education must reject implementing radical gender ideologies nationwide. Parental rights - including the rights of parents to educate teach their children ie) reading, writing, math, religion, sex, etc. - must be respected.

The Title IX Amendments were clearly crafted to give educational opportunities to women and girls. The Biden Administration and the US Department of Education have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law. The Administration's and the Department's actions have shown their desire to redefine law, harming the privacy of women and girls while removing opportunities for women and girls, especially in the sports arena.

It was not that long ago, when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it, seeing it as a violation of the privacy of our nations vulnerable daughters.

Yet, today, our nations girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events, for scholarships, etc. because biological males are allowed to compete with them. And when these young women speak up, they are censored. Please do not continue to force girls to forfeit their hard earned opportunities to boys.

Thank you,

Mr. David Mitchell

The Biden Administration and the Department have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law. The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

I remember when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. This Department must not violate the privacy of girls.

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys.

Finally parental rights- including rights of parents to teach their children about sex- must be respected. Implementing radical gender ideologies in schools nationwide is NOT the role of the federal government. The Department must reject implementing radical gender ideologies nationwide.

Thank you,

Mr. Stephen Holt

Acting Director Goldberg

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I'm very concerned with the Biden's administration effort to take away the rights of women and girls to compete based on their sexual orientation. Women and girls should not have to compete with those who have opted to change their sexual orientation.

Obama's Administration did not identify the laws as being what the Biden Administration is determining it should be. Please know that Women and girls should compete with naturally born those of the same sex.

Sharing lockers and showers is just out of the question. What is our country coming too when we transform foundational Judeo Christian rights to the form of liberality being displayed in the change being proclaimed.?

Please search your souls to do the best thing for this generation and future generations.

Thank you,

This policy is a theft of women's and girl's privacy, theft of sports opportunities for girls and women, and a theft of all young children's natural innocence.

In order to please a vocal minority, this plan will oppress the majority and cause great injustice, insecurity, and injury to our country's future.

Please do not take away the rights of the majority to satisfy a few who feel they have more importance over others.

HEAR THIS:

Conservative America (and anybody who has half a brain and any common sense) knows this load of crap and liberal agenda is an offense to the common sense and the security of life as it should be. Just because a small minority of VERY VOCAL and sinful LGBTQ morons have squeaked loudly and demanded their ridiculous, self-centered, and offensive agenda should be mandated for everyone else to accept as normal and permissible, does not give Sleepy Stupid Joe and his godless team any right to make it a law (or even suggest it be considered as such). Cut the bull and end this violation of rights, common sense, and God's standard for human life.

I remember when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. This Department must not violate the privacy of girls.

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys.

Finally parental rights- including rights of parents to teach their children about sex- must be respected. Implementing radical gender ideologies in schools nationwide is NOT the role of the federal government. The Department must reject implementing radical gender ideologies nationwide.

Thank you,

Mr. Brandon Schoen

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I am writing to you concerning the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)."

The Title IX Amendments were clearly crafted to give educational opportunities to women and girls. The Biden Administration and the Department have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law. The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

Acting Director Goldberg

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I am deeply concerned for my two granddaughters. I am concerned for their education, for their personal privacy, their emotional health, and their sexual purity should they be involved in public school athletics and other programs. Should they pursue athletics and possible scholarships to college, I am concerned for their potential, due to possibly competing with gender-confused males, vying for those same scholarships. I am concerned for the twisting in the classroom of their understanding of the beauty seen in our two God-given genders; that this twisting will denigrate who God created them and their classmates to be.

I am writing to you concerning the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)."

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I am writing to you about the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)."

The Title IX Amendments were clearly crafted to give educational opportunities to women and girls. I find it appalling that the Biden Administration and the Department have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law. Your actions speak louder than your words. The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown your rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

I remember when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. The actions of the Biden Administration and the Department shows that it is simply an extension and continuation of the Obama Administration. This Department must not violate the privacy of girls.

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys. Surely you recognize and are fully aware of the biological differences between boys and girls and the resulting ability to compete in sporting events.

Finally parental rights- including rights of parents to teach their children about sex- must be respected. Implementing radical gender ideologies in schools nationwide is NOT the role of the federal government. The Department must reject implementing radical gender ideologies nationwide.

I am writing to you concerning the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)."

The Title IX Amendments were clearly crafted to give educational opportunities to women and girls. The Biden Administration and the Department have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law. The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

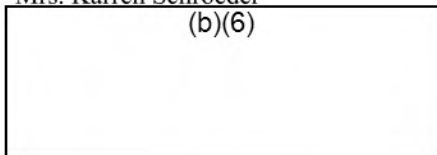

I remember when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. This Department must not violate the privacy of girls.

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys.

Finally parental rights- including rights of parents to teach their children about sex- must be respected. Implementing radical gender ideologies in schools nationwide is NOT the role of the federal government. The Department must reject implementing radical gender ideologies nationwide.

Thank you,

Mrs. Suzan Greenwood

The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

It boggles my mind that things have gotten so twisted that girls are even expected to accept competition against biological boys. In competitive sports where differences between winning and losing are fractions of seconds or points, a biological male has a physical advantage, regardless of their gender identification.

I remember when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. This Department must not violate the privacy of girls.

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys.

Any further sex education should be taught at home by parents, This Department does not have the right to teach children that they can change their sex, this is something that is very personal and should only be discussed with family members and a personal physician, and should never be entertained by a minor! God created us male and female, and if someone chooses to make any changes to their bodies they should be old enough to understand what they are choosing and what that choice entails.

Acting Director Goldberg

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I am writing to you concerning the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)."

The Title IX Amendments were clearly crafted to give educational opportunities to women and girls. Having two sisters, four daughters and eight granddaughters I am very invested in the impact this Amendment will have on my granddaughters, and so are they. Title IX that gave many freedoms to girls are now being swrpt away and given back to boys. How unfair.

The Biden Administration and the Department have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law. The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

I remember when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. This Department must not violate the privacy of girls.

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them; Caitlyn Jenner has come out saying this is unfair to allow boys to compete as girls against girls. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys.

Finally parental rights- including rights of parents to teach their children about sex- must be respected. Implementing radical gender ideologies in schools nationwide is NOT the role of the federal government. The Department must reject implementing radical gender ideologies nationwide.

Acting Director Goldberg

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I am writing to you concerning the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)."

The intent of the Title IX Amendments were to safeguard opportunities for women and girls. The current Administration's and the Department's proposed actions would have the effect of decreasing both privacy and opportunities for women and girls.

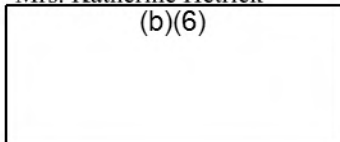

It is not right to force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and sleeping quarters with boys, males or those born biologically so. This Department must not violate the privacy and security of our girls.

Today, girls are losing opportunities to win at the sports for which they have trained because those born biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when girls speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force our girls to forfeit their opportunities because of others' claimed gender identity.

Please strongly oppose and changes that would redefine "sex" as originally defined and intended in the Amendments to include "sexual orientation" and "gender identity." Though wildly popular at the moment (in certain circles of the population that claim outsized media attention), these redefinitions and the accompanying policy changes would be particularly harmful to our citizens, including our youngest and most vulnerable. Please oppose these changes to Title IX.

Thank you,

Mrs. Katherine Hetrick

Acting Director Goldberg

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I am writing to you concerning the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)."

The Title IX Amendments were clearly crafted to give educational opportunities to women and girls. The Biden Administration and the Department have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law. The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

I remember when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. This Department must not violate the privacy of girls.

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys.

Finally parental rights- including rights of parents to teach their children about sex- must be respected. Implementing radical gender ideologies in schools nationwide is NOT the role of the federal government. The Department must reject implementing radical gender ideologies nationwide.

Thank you,

Ms. Terri White

Acting Director Goldberg

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

Regarding the hearing on Sexual Orientation and Gender Identity (Title IX)

I am very concerned by the politicization of sex education to the detriment of children's welfare and destruction of the family unit. It is revolting to see children and families sacrificed to satisfy the aberrant demands of a strident minority, much less garner a few votes. Title IX is more than adequate as it is to protect the rights and dignity of those pursuing alternative lifestyles and genders. Expansion of Title IX is STRONGLY opposed.

Surely, causing physiological and emotional damage to the majority of children who embrace traditional gender identities is not your intent. However, promotion of counter-cultural values and social norms will cause these children gender confusion and needless identity conflicts. It is bad enough that those embracing alternative genders and lifestyles have to deal with such distress, but why inflict that distress upon so very many more, otherwise happy and healthy, children. Consider the frustration and anger imposed on girls competing against boys identifying as girls in sports.

Surely, undermining the guidance and supervision of children by parents is not your intent. Too many young people already suffer diminished life potential because of inadequate parental involvement. Recall a major factor leading to school dropout, teen pregnancy and gang membership is lack of home guidance and supervision. However, government mandates for schools and public institution to promote and validate counter-cultural values and social norms will create tension and conflict between the authority and guidance of parents versus non-family influences, like school. This conflict will seriously undermine the family as a unit.

Sadly, some families are too dysfunctional to properly educate and socialize their children. In such case, some institutions substitute is justified. However, that does not describe the vast majority of parents. They should not be devalued, disenfranchised or dismissed across the board. Families should be strengthened, not undermined.

Please keep sex education and discussion of gender identity in the family at home. Please preserve Title IX as-is. At most simply enforce Title IX protections. Expansion of Title IX is STRONGLY opposed.

Harvey W Clark Jr. Ph.D

Acting Director Goldberg

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I am writing to you concerning the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)."

The Title IX Amendments were clearly crafted to give educational opportunities to women and girls. The Biden Administration and the Department have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law. The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

I remember when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. This Department must not violate the privacy of girls.

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys.

Finally parental rights- including rights of parents to teach their children about sex- must be respected. Implementing radical gender ideologies in schools nationwide is NOT the role of the federal government. The Department must reject implementing radical gender ideologies nationwide.

Thank you,

Mrs. Cheryl Brown

We often hear today that the science is settles. If that is the case, then it is important to follow biological science on this issue.

Biologic makes have known physical advantages over biological females. Even well-known transgender athletes such as Kaitlin Jenner have stated that biological males who identify as women have a physical advantage over females.

Finally parental rights- including rights of parents to teach their children about sex- must be respected. Implementing radical gender ideologies in schools nationwide is NOT the role of the federal government. The Department must reject implementing radical gender ideologies nationwide. Prepubescent children are not sexual yet and it is abusive to push modern gender ideologies into these young, developing minds. Leave the children along. Let them be children.

Thank you,

Acting Director Goldberg

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I am writing to you concerning the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)."

The Title IX Amendments were clearly crafted to give educational opportunities to women and girls. The Biden Administration and the Department have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law. The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls. As a mother of a girl and boy, I STRONGLY oppose this attempted change.

I remember when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. Apparently, many people haven't learned from history as we are forced to stand here and stop it again. This Department must not violate the privacy of girls. Changing the policy would not only impair their privacy, it would also endanger them and jeopardize their opportunities.

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys. I do believe this was the main point of Title IX in the first place-to more fairly allow girls and women to compete.

Finally parental rights- including rights of parents to teach their children about sex- must be respected. Implementing radical gender ideologies in schools nationwide is NOT the role of the federal government. This kind of education should ONLY come from family unit. The Department must reject implementing radical gender ideologies nationwide.

Thank you,

Mrs. Jane Holland

Acting Director Goldberg

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I am writing to you concerning the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)."

The Title IX Amendments were clearly crafted to give educational opportunities to women and girls. The Biden Administration and the Department have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law. The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

I remember when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. This Department must not violate the privacy of girls.

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys.

Finally parental rights- including rights of parents to teach their children about sex- must be respected. Implementing radical gender ideologies in schools nationwide is NOT the role of the federal government. The Department must reject implementing radical gender ideologies nationwide.

Thank you,

Mr. James Maynard

Acting Director Goldberg

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I am writing to you concerning the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)."

The Title IX Amendments were clearly crafted to give educational opportunities to women and girls. The Biden Administration and the Department have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law. The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

The Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. This Department must not violate the privacy of girls.

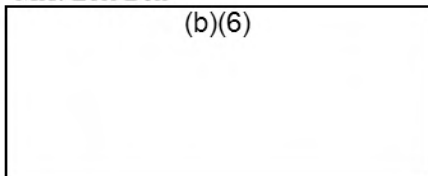

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys.

Finally parental rights- including rights of parents to teach their children about sex- must be respected. Implementing radical gender ideologies in schools nationwide is NOT the role of the federal government. The Department must reject implementing radical gender ideologies nationwide.

Thank you,

Mrs. Lori Bell

Acting Director Goldberg

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

Texas Values is writing to you concerning the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)." We are a non-profit organization standing for religious freedom, life, and issues of marriage and family. Our team spends significant efforts standing for student free speech rights and parental education rights by testifying at school board meetings and the Texas State board of Education. We have seen how the policies you are considering effect every aspect of education including: dress codes, free speech, sports, and sex education.

The Title IX Amendments were clearly crafted to give educational opportunities to women and girls. The Biden Administration and the Department have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law. The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

Texas Values remembers when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. This Department must not violate the privacy of girls.

Texas Values has had to defend the privacy rights and religious freedom rights ever since the Obama Dear Colleague letter. The Texas Values team has testified at school districts all over the state of Texas urging them to not adopt "sexual orientation"/ "gender identity" policies for students that would force girls to share private spaces with male students, force females to compete against males in sports, punish teachers and students for using the wrong pronoun, and punish students of faith who have religious beliefs on marriage and sexuality.

After the Bostock decision, education lobbying groups felt emboldened to overhaul school policies with LGBT language that imposed strict requirements on students to adhere to LGBT advocacy and severe punishment if students and teachers did not comply. Texas Values sent a legal letter to all 1,200 Texas school districts explaining that Title VII law does not apply to Title IX situations, which is an undeniable legal fact analysis. This administration is attempting to make the same legal mistake and hinder students', teachers', and even parents' rights. Many school districts have rejected the adoption of these policies and parents who have voiced their opposition have successfully voted board members out who force these LGBT policies.

Finally parental rights- including rights of parents to teach their children about sex- must be respected. Implementing radical gender ideologies in schools nationwide is NOT the role of the federal government. The Department must reject implementing radical gender ideologies nationwide.

Texas Values

Thank you,

Ms. Mary Elizabeth Castle , Policy Advisor for Texas Values

Acting Director Goldberg

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

As a voter and taxpayer, I wish my voice to be heard this week concerning the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)."

The Title IX Amendments were clearly crafted to give educational opportunities to women and girls, a noble goal. Broadening this goal to include gender identity ideology circumvents the intended definitions, purpose, and scope of this law.

As the government increasingly seeks to incorporate a social agenda into our public schools, the academic content continues to decline. Public schools were created to be centers of education, not indoctrination. Our nation would be far better served if our educational system would unite our children by teaching the framework of our constitution, which declares the worth and value of every individual and holds as its standard the right to enjoy freedom of personhood, freedom of thought, and freedom of religion.

Families, not government, form the backbone of our society and determine its health. When government undermines the rights of families to raise their children according to the dictates of their own conscience, our society suffers. These consequences are clearly seen today in the deterioration of families and in the chaos of young people who have been deprived of a sense of higher purpose. Instead of learning about the sacrifices their forefathers made to provide them with abundant freedom and opportunity, these privileged young people are taught to identify themselves as helpless victims.

The ideologies being proposed by sexual orientation and gender identity training infuse confusion and self doubt into our children's psyche. They have no place in our schools, in our locker rooms, or in our sports competitions.

Thank you,

Mrs. Esther Holst

Acting Director Goldberg

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I am writing to you concerning the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)."

The Title IX Amendments were clearly crafted to give educational opportunities to women and girls. What is being proposed is emotionally abusive to females. Also, I know gay females who do not feel comfortable with males being allowed in showers, locker rooms, hotels, etc. This is dangerous. The Biden Administration and the Department have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law. The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

I remember when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. This Department must not violate the privacy of girls.

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys. Women's rights has made do much progress and this works against that.

Finally parental rights- including rights of parents to teach their children about sex- must be respected. Implementing radical gender ideologies in schools nationwide is NOT the role of the federal government. It is not the role of teachers to be teaching our children about gender ideologies, either. Again, this concerns children's mental health and does not follow developmental guidelines. It is dangerous and political and has no place in schools. The Department must reject implementing radical gender ideologies nationwide.

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I am writing to you concerning the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)."

The Title IX Amendments were clearly crafted to give educational opportunities to women and girls. The Biden Administration and the Department have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law. The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

I remember when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. This Department must not violate the privacy of girls.

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys.

Finally parental rights- including rights of parents to teach their children about sex- must be respected. Implementing radical gender ideologies in schools nationwide is NOT the role of the federal government. The Department must reject implementing radical gender ideologies nationwide.

Thank you,

Mr. David Blair

Acting Director Goldberg

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I am writing to you concerning the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)."

I strongly oppose any changes to the Department of Education's education policies as it relates to the definition of a human being's sex. If the Department of Education is considering redefining "sex" to include "sexual orientation" and "gender identity," I am strongly opposed to this.

I firmly believe that maintaining the definition of a person's "sex" as relating specifically to a person's biological sex (born with a penis = boy, born with a vagina = girl) is critically important for many, many reasons. As a Christian who believes the Bible is God's Word to us, when it says that God created us distinctly male and female, in God's image, I believe that the Bible indicates that we are not to tamper with the biological design of our bodies. We are born either male or female (with the small exception of those who are born with both a vagina and penis), and this was God's good intention for us. I believe that the traditional view of what it means to be male and what it means to be female must be upheld in order for our country to thrive.

If a change to the fundamental definition of "sex" is made at the Federal level, how does the Department of Education plan to accommodate the belief of millions of people in this country who work in schools or who have children in our schools who believe that making a change to the definition of a person's "sex" violates a core teaching in the Bible? How will the Department of Education demonstrate respect and protect these people's jobs and the rights of children?

Arguing from a different perspective: MUCH more longitudinal study of the ramifications of sex changes need to be psychologically and scientifically understood before our country's Department of Education makes such a radical change to the definition of "sex" that impacts so many aspects of life.

I also agree wholeheartedly with Family Policy Alliance's comments below:

The Title IX Amendments were clearly crafted to give educational opportunities to women and girls. The Biden Administration and the Department have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law. The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

In addition to the below forwarded message, I'd like to add my concern about radical groups like GLSEN infiltrating our public schools.

Started by (b)(6) this group has corrupted our public schools for several decades now, as evidenced by the rapid increase of children who aren't sure about their genders anymore. (b)(6) has been an active and vocal member of the largest pedophile organization in the world, NAMBLA, by the way.

I remember when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. This Department must not violate the privacy of girls. If a person has a PENIS, even if they wear a dress and put on lipstick, they are still a biologic MALE! Build them their own locker room, let them stay in their own hotel room. Have a heart and a care for the girls you are supposed support and protect. What would you want for your own daughter--think deeply about it?

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys. Genetically and structurally men (boys) are stronger and faster than women (girls). You say you want equality for all. Where is the equality for girls?

Finally parental rights- including rights of parents to teach their children about sex- must be respected. Implementing radical gender ideologies in schools nationwide is NOT the role of the federal government. The Department must reject implementing radical gender ideologies nationwide. The government has no right to teach my children about sex and sexual orientation, especially when it is against my beliefs and rights as their parent.

Acting Director Goldberg

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I am writing germane to the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)."

Some people think that taking hormones can change their gender. If they define "gender" as what they like to do at that particular time in their life, or how they "feel" about stereotypes associated with male or female in a particular culture, they may buy into this gender ideology.

But for those who look at the science, the SRY gene on the Y chromosome determines biological sex-- your "gender." So the truth is, a penis does not make you a male, but having an SRY gene on your Y chromosome does mean that you have a penis--unless you cut it off (formerly called castration, now called "bottom surgery" for those "transitioning.")

The problem is, cutting off a penis does not change the skeletal structure of a male. And his skeletal structure gives him an extreme muscular advantage over a female competitor no matter how many hormones he has taken to lower his testosterone. (And incidentally, his lowered testosterone level will still be multiple times greater than a woman's normal testosterone level.)

Biological males (even "transitioned" biological males called "trans women") are naturally stronger on average than most biological females. As such, they have a physical advantage over women and girls in sports and in private spaces--or spaces which should be private, like bathrooms and changing or shower rooms.

Which brings us to Title IX. The Biden Administration and the Department of Education have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law.

The Title IX Amendments were clearly crafted to give educational opportunities to women and girls. The Biden Administration and the Department have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of

The Title IX Amendments were clearly crafted to give educational opportunities to women and girls. The Biden Administration and the Department have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law. The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

I remember when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. This Department must not violate the privacy of girls.

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys.

Finally parental rights- including rights of parents to teach their children about sex- must be respected. Implementing radical gender ideologies in schools nationwide is NOT the role of the federal government. The Department must reject implementing radical gender ideologies nationwide.

Thank you,

Mr. Jonathan Brundage

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I am voicing my opposition to making changes to Title IX; this was originally crafted to give opportunities to girls and women. I oppose changes that redefine this policy.

Please oppose any statements that incorporate sexual orientation or gender identity clauses in our educational policies. This type of education belongs in homes with parents. There is no "one size fits all"

when it comes to age appropriateness for sex education.

Please preserve parents' rights and vote no to these changes.

Thank you,

Mrs. Leona Boerema

Since when has the work of the US Department of Education become the work of the devil? Does anyone in any appreciable level of authority have the conscience to recognize that the current proposal is simply a variation of Satan's pursuit to destroy God's creation ---- more importantly does anyone within the USDofE have the courage to stand up in opposition? ----- or is protecting the pending promotion or cushy pension more important than protecting the children? ----- Hope you enjoy your 30 pieces of silver!

Just a reminder---there will be a price to pay for this dereliction of service and abuse of power ---- my guess is it will be sooner rather than later.

The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

I remember when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. This Department must not violate the privacy of girls.

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys.

Finally parental rights- including rights of parents to teach their children about sex- must be respected. Implementing radical gender ideologies in schools nationwide is NOT the role of the federal government. The Department must reject implementing radical gender ideologies nationwide.

I appreciate your service to our country. I love my country and her people....and want the best!

Thank you,

Mrs. Nina Donohoe

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I am writing to you concerning the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)."

One of my best girl friends growing up was self described as a "tom boy." She loved sports and disliked wearing dresses. She is now married to a man and has children. What if she grew up in a time when her parents and teachers would "encourage" her to be a boy because of those things? She would have never had a chance to live the life she now has and instead it would have opened up a lifetime of confusion, difficulties, and identity issues. Please don't do this to our children.

The Title IX Amendments were clearly crafted to give educational opportunities to women and girls. Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

Girls have fought long and hard to have girls sports recognized and are still trying to overcome the sports practice of being second class citizens. To take this away from them is clearly discriminatory. Just because a boy wants to think himself as a girl does not make him a boy. No one seems to consider the impact on girls if these boys share locker rooms and showers with girls. It is grossly unfair and highly disrespectful of girls.

Acting Director Goldberg

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I am writing to you concerning the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)."

The Title IX Amendments were clearly crafted to give educational opportunities to women and girls. The Biden Administration and the Department have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law. The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

I remember when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. This Department must not violate the privacy of girls.

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys.

Finally parental rights- including rights of parents to teach their children about sex- must be respected. Implementing radical gender ideologies in schools nationwide is NOT the role of the federal government. The Department must reject implementing radical gender ideologies nationwide.

Thank you,

Mr. Andrew Yandura

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I am writing to you concerning the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)."

IT IS NOT "sports" THAT IS THE PROBLEM NOR SHOULD THAT BE THE CONCERN: GIRLS AND BOYS HAVE THE RIGHT TO LIVE THEIR LIVES WITHOUT OUTSIDE DESTRUCTIVE AND PERVERTED CORERCION INTO TRANGENDERISM AND OTHER PERVERTED LIFESTYLES, WHICH IS NOT OF HUMAN NATURE, BUT OF THE MIND OF THE WICKED AND MOST PERVERTED AND CORRUPT IN OUR MIDST. WHERE IS THE LOVE AND CONCERN FOR THE SOUL AND SPIRIT AND ULTIMATELY LIFE OF A CHILD OF GOD, GIRLS AND BOYS? THOSE WHO MISLEAD, FORCE AND ABUSE CHILDREN WOULD BE BETTER TO HAVE A MILLSTONE HUNG AROUND THEIR NECK AND DROWNED THAN FACE THE LORD GOD FOR THEIR HATRED TOWARDS GOD AND THE CHILDREN.

I have been concerned for years with the senseless changes and evil brought into our schools in the name of education! I have written letters of concern as well! One saying still true is... all it takes for evil to prevail... is for good men or women ... to do NOTHING! The rubber meets the road here. Please do not continue this evil. Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I am writing to you concerning the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)."

The Title IX Amendments were clearly crafted to give educational opportunities to women and girls. The Biden Administration and the Department have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law. The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

I remember when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. This Department must not violate the privacy of girls.

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys.

Finally parental rights- including rights of parents to teach their children about sex- must be respected. Implementing radical gender ideologies in schools nationwide is NOT the role of the federal government. The Department must reject implementing radical gender ideologies nationwide.

Thank you,

Mrs. Rosanne Chesakis

Therefore, I STRONGLY OPPOSE ANY CHANGES in education policies that redefine "sex" to include "sexual orientation" and "gender identity." Biden's Education Department has no place attempting to implement this radical agenda into every local school district in the country.

Comments for the "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)."

I STRONGLY OPPOSE any attempt to subvert parental rights in teaching their children --- especially regarding the sensitive topics of sexuality. No board of education or department of our government at any level has any right to do this.

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys.

The Department must reject implementing radical gender ideologies nationwide.

I want my granddaughters and other girls to be able to go forward in life being proud of being a girl and woman, and being able to talk about being female.

I don't want women to go to a shelter with her children and not be able to sleep because a person of the sex that may have hurt her, to sleep in the next bed to her and her vulnerable children.

Some men are being privileged by these laws you want to enact.

For many years, no research was done on typically male diseases, to see what symptoms and treatments could be used for women. Specifically heart disease.

Please let the benefits many women suffered to obtain for us, continue.

Please don't take them away.

I am married, and don't consider myself a women's liberation person, but this should stop with continuing to benefit males more than females.

I remember when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. This Department must not violate the privacy of girls. Please protect the innocence of our children!

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys.

Finally parental rights- including rights of parents to teach their children about sex- must be respected. This is a God-given responsibility given to parents by God. Implementing radical gender ideologies in schools nationwide is NOT the role of the federal government. The Department must reject implementing radical gender ideologies nationwide.

Thank you,

Mr. Brian Shiel

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I am writing to you concerning the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)."

The Title IX Amendments were clearly crafted to give educational opportunities to women and girls. The Biden Administration and the Department have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law. The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, even worse, HARM privacy and STEAL opportunities for women and girls. How can they possibly say that they care about empowering females? Their actions CLEARLY speak the opposite!

I remember when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. How perverse!!! Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. This Department must not violate the privacy of girls.

Acting Director Goldberg

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I am writing to you concerning the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)."

The Title IX Amendments were clearly crafted to give educational opportunities to women and girls. The Biden Administration and the Department have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law. The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

I remember when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. This Department must not violate the privacy of girls.

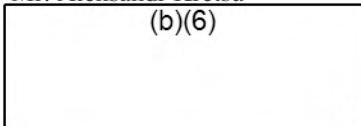

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys.

Finally parental rights- including rights of parents to teach their children about sex- must be respected. Implementing radical gender ideologies in schools nationwide is NOT the role of the federal government. The Department must reject implementing radical gender ideologies nationwide.

Thank you,

Mrs. Anna Tate

Our schools were established to provide an education for every child. That education has always been about giving our children the ability to read, write, learn mathematics and individual decision-making skills. Taking the time away from teaching these important skills to impose a mindset that is all about destroying the innocence of our young children in regards to sexual matters should not be the role of The State.

Acting Director Goldberg

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I am writing to you concerning the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)."

I am strongly opposed to any policy to redefine "sex" to include sexual orientation and gender identity. Those are personal choices that do not need to be included in education. Making children dress, shower, or use the restrooms with the opposite sex is no matter what they might identify as is wrong!

Our country is founded on freedom and I am not against the small percentage that make choices of alternative lifestyles, but the push to make their choices mainstream and even "more acceptable" than the majority has gotten out of hand and this needs to stop. It is not fair to girls, children who will be confused and frightened by it and to parents who should be the lead in teaching and discussing sex, alternative lifestyles and choice to their children. The government needs to stop overreaching their authority.

The Title IX Amendments were clearly crafted to give educational opportunities to women and girls. Acting Director Goldberg

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

Hello -

I am writing to you concerning the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)."

The Title IX Amendments were clearly crafted to give educational opportunities to women and girls. The Biden Administration and the Department have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law. The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

I remember when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. This Department must not violate the privacy of girls.

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys.

As a mother to one daughter and one son, the threat of this implementation, saddens me to the core. PLEASE Reject this ideology!

Finally parental rights- including rights of parents to teach their children about sex- must be respected. Implementing radical gender ideologies in schools nationwide is NOT the role of the federal government. The Department must reject implementing radical gender ideologies nationwide.

Thank you,

Mrs. Nita Gilbert

The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

The proposed changes are based on an ideology that asserts that reality is defined more by emotions than by objective, biological facts. Those who hold this ideology say that these changes are needed to make students "feel safe." It would be far better to implement policies that forbid acts of violence and words of disdain for whatever reason might motivate such acts or words, rather than force everyone to act according to an ideology to which far from all agree.

I remember when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. This Department must not violate the privacy of girls.

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I also want to say being a mother to 4 kids boys and girls this is unacceptable! This is not a democrat vs republican situation this is a your stealing children's innocence situation. You are harming these boys and girls minds implanting thoughts that shouldn't even be there. Please president biden allow our kids to be kids and I beg you to stop stealing their innocence. We are choosing to send our child private even though money is tight due to these policies I won't allow my children's innocence to be robbed. Boys and girls ARE NOT the same they look differently, act differently and are different and why do you believe that there is something wrong with that ? They are strong and beautiful in their own way! A girl who wants to be a boy and a boy who wants to be a girl is just so confusing for these young minds fine if that's your choice but I'm sorry you are still a girl and you are still a boy and you should not be mixed and put my child at risk of seeing and hearing things they shouldn't see and hear and also have thoughts they shouldn't be having. It is hard enough for these teenagers to control their minds and hormones and now you are going in and warping their reality. These just stop hurting our children please stop making this a democrat republican thing and please stop seeing things one sided. Gender is gender and you can't change that or steal that.

I remember when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. This Department must not violate the privacy of girls.

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

Congress and George Washington in 1789 passed the "UNITED STATES ANNOTATED CODE", Article 3 which states, Religion, morality, and knowledge, being necessary to good government and happiness of mankind, schools and the means of education shall forever be encouraged."

Which means Patrick Henry " It cannot be emphasized too strongly or too often that this great nation was founded, not by religionists, but by Gods children; not religions, but on the Gospel of Jesus Christ. For this very reason peoples of other faiths have been afforded asylum, prosperity, and freedom of worship here."

America has lost its way and only virtuous people can guide her back. And, so that end, the PEOPLE, by the mercy of God, must rediscover the common [natural] law and with blessings return to America to her roots again.

Acting Director Goldberg

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I am writing to you concerning the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)."

The Title IX Amendments were clearly crafted to give educational opportunities to women and girls. The Biden Administration and the Department have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law. The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

I remember when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. This Department must not violate the privacy of girls.

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys.

Finally parental rights- including rights of parents to teach their children about sex- must be respected. Implementing radical gender ideologies in schools nationwide is NOT the role of the federal government. The Department must reject implementing radical gender ideologies nationwide.

Acting Director Goldberg

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I am writing to you concerning the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)."

The Title IX Amendments were crafted to give educational opportunities to women and girls. The Biden Administration and the Department seemed to ignore the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law. The Administration's and the Department's actions demonstrate a strong desire to redefine law. These changes would eliminate privacy and suppress opportunities for women and girls.

I understand that the Obama Administration supported the removal of Title IX funding to schools refused to require girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys and vice versa. A nationwide injunction stopped this action. We ought not to violate the privacy of girls and boys.

Today, girls are essentially being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are frequently censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys.

Finally parental rights - including rights of parents to teach their children about sex - ought to be respected. Implementing radical gender ideologies in schools nationwide should NOT be the role of the federal government. The Department must reject implementing radical gender ideologies nationwide.

Acting Director Goldberg

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

This message is in regards to the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing for the purpose of improving enforcement of the Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972". As a female born in 1968, I have benefited in various ways from the adoption of Title IX. However, the opportunities this administration is trying to add to this federal civil rights law will not benefit my female children and grandchildren. In essence, this amendment is criminal. Forcing girls to change clothes in front of boys who have decided they are girls is unacceptable to the American people.

Just like when the Obama administration attempted to make similar changes, the American people will not stand for it. If you have female athletes in your family that are working hard to be successful, win scholarships, and make a career of sports, you understand that having them compete against male bodies dressed as females destroys their future. Females stand against this action. You cannot in one breath state that you respect females and in the next breath declare that all are equal on the playing field regardless of the gender they were born with.

Lastly, many Americans count on the free public education that has for so long been afforded to tax paying Americans across this nation. They do not need or want the government deciding for them how their children will be educated about gender and sex. It is not their job and we will not continue to vote for an administration that takes away our rights in the name of tolerance.

Thank you,

Mrs. Tina Cooley

Acting Director Goldberg

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I am writing to you concerning the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)."

The Title IX Amendments were clearly crafted to give educational opportunities to women and girls. The Biden Administration and the Department have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law. The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

I remember when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. This Department must not violate the privacy of girls.

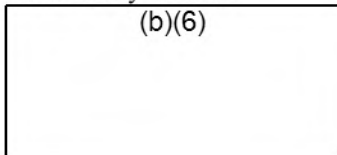

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys.

Finally parental rights- including rights of parents to teach their children about sex- must be respected. Implementing radical gender ideologies in schools nationwide is NOT the role of the federal government. The Department must reject implementing radical gender ideologies nationwide.

Thank you,

Mrs. Sally Benson

I remember when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. However, once again, the current administration is attempting to violate the civil and natural rights of more than half the population by expanding the definition of "girl" to include pretenders, perverts, and pedophiles. This Department must not violate the privacy of girls.

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys - not in sports, not in education, not in the workplace, and not in government appointments. Shame on you for even attempting to justify these actions as opposition to discrimination against a specific class or group of citizens, when the entire purpose of these actions is to discriminate against a different group.

Finally parental rights- including rights of parents to teach their children about sex- must be respected. Implementing radical gender ideologies in schools nationwide is NOT the role of the federal government. Every other species on the planet recognizes only two genders - male and female. Animals have no problem identifying their individual gender and we call them dumb. Yet, humans today, rather than looking between their legs to determine their gender want, instead, to look between their ears. How stupid can you get and still breath? The Department of Education and the Biden Administration must reject implementing radical gender ideologies nationwide.

Thank you,

Mr. Stanley Mael

Acting Director Goldberg

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I am writing to you concerning the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)."

The Title IX Amendments were clearly crafted to give educational opportunities to women and girls. The Biden Administration and the Department have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law. The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

I remember when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. This Department must not violate the privacy of girls.

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys.

Finally parental rights- including rights of parents to teach their children about sex- must be respected. Implementing radical gender ideologies in schools nationwide is NOT the role of the federal government. The Department must reject implementing radical gender ideologies nationwide.

Thank you,

Mrs. Stephanie Pysher

Acting Director Goldberg

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I am writing to you concerning the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)."

We know that the Title IX Amendments were intended to provide improved educational opportunities to women and girls. The actions of the Biden Administration and the Department seem to have forgotten this and their proposals threaten the very good that Title IX aimed at! Redefining the law as they propose will harm privacy (and thus the mental health and even safety) of women and girls, as well as stealing opportunities.

The Obama Administration threatened to cut Title IX funding for schools that wouldn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. A nationwide injunction halted that madness. Will this Department do even worse?

Once upon a time, girls had little chance to be on a podium at a sporting event. A few years ago, they had many. Now, they are losing many of their places because they are competing against biological boys. They're censored when they complain. Does the Department not care about opportunities for girls?

We believe in freedom. The government has a limited role. It does not have rights and responsibilities that parents do have (unless the parents forfeit those rights by neglecting their responsibilities). For the government to steal the rights of parents, implementing radical gender ideologies in school, will weaken American families even further. The government cannot replace parents, and it should not try.

Males should not be allowed to participate in Female sports and quite frankly, females should not be allowed to participate in male sports. There should be no special privileges to either sex but there must be a division and a separation.

Start paying attention to the greater good and quit allowing special interest groups to dictate irresponsible actions. This is NOT the will of the majority.

There are examples of girls refusing to use the restroom the entire school day, for fear of having a biological boy walk in on them. That is, at minimum, awkward, and at the maximum, a complete invasion of privacy. There are sex-segregated locker rooms, and restrooms, for a reason.

As a female collegiate athlete in two sports, and as the mom of one collegiate female athlete, and hopefully another in a few years, the idea of letting them compete against biological males is ridiculous. Allowing this will be the death of female sports! Knowingly allowing them to put themselves in physical danger because of having to compete against a physiologically stronger (regardless of any supposed hormone suppression) male is not a step I will take, and I am not alone in that. When one speaks of empowering biological women and not discriminating against them, changing this is a way of setting those goals back 50 years. How regressive!

The Title IX Amendments were clearly crafted to give educational opportunities to women and girls. The Biden Administration and the Department have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law. The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

I remember when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. This Department must not violate the privacy of girls.

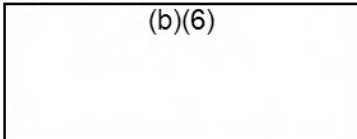

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys.

Finally parental rights- including rights of parents to teach their children about sex- must be respected. Implementing radical gender ideologies in schools nationwide is NOT the role of the federal government. The Department must reject implementing radical gender ideologies nationwide.

Thank you,

Mrs. Corrina Ruiru

Acting Director Goldberg

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I am writing to you concerning the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)."

The Title IX Amendments were clearly crafted to give educational opportunities to women and girls. The Biden Administration and the Department have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law. The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

I remember when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. This Department must not violate the privacy of girls.

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys.

Finally parental rights- including rights of parents to teach their children about sex- must be respected. Implementing radical gender ideologies in schools nationwide is NOT the role of the federal government. The Department must reject implementing radical gender ideologies nationwide.

Thank you,

Ms. Donna Meadows

The Biden Administration and the Department have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law. The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

I remember when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. This Department must not violate the privacy of girls.

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys.

Finally parental rights- including rights of parents to teach their children about sex- must be respected. Implementing radical gender ideologies in schools nationwide is NOT the role of the federal government. The Department must reject implementing radical gender ideologies nationwide.

Thank you,

Mr. John Sommerfeld

Acting Director Goldberg

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I am writing to you concerning the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)."

The Title IX Amendments were clearly crafted to give educational opportunities to women and girls. The Biden Administration and the Department have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law. The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

I remember when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. This Department must not violate the privacy of girls.

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys.

Finally parental rights- including rights of parents to teach their children about sex- must be respected. Implementing radical gender ideologies in schools nationwide is NOT the role of the federal government. The Department must reject implementing radical gender ideologies nationwide.

Thank you,

Mr. Jesus Chaira

The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

I remember when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. This Department must not violate the privacy of girls.

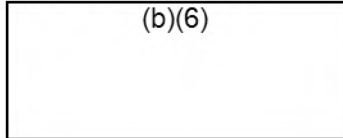

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys.

Finally parental rights- including rights of parents to teach their children about sex- must be respected. Implementing radical gender ideologies in schools nationwide is NOT the role of the federal government. The Department must reject implementing radical gender ideologies nationwide.

Thank you,

Ms. Carole A. Ferrara-Schwarz

Acting Director Goldberg

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

Schools have lost their focus on the true academics they are suppose to be teaching. Instead, they are teaching social politics that should be left to the family structure. The USA has lost its place in the world of math, reading and the sciences.

When a political agenda is focused in schools, division among the students, teachers and public is the only result.

Schools should ONLY be teaching math, reading, writing, history, the sciences, literature, composition and civics. Let religion, political ideology, social posturing be left to the families to discuss.

When I see students in high school can't make correct change in a financial transfer or they can't express themselves in a thoughtful and coherent manner, the schools have failed.

If the schools should teach anything besides a limited and pointed curriculum stressing basic education talents, it could be unification through respectful debate, human dignity and civil communication with each other.

Thank you,

Mr. Kenneth Hamlin

Acting Director Goldberg

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I am writing to you concerning the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)."

The Title IX Amendments were clearly crafted to give educational opportunities to women and girls. The Biden Administration and the Department have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law. The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

I remember when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. This Department must not violate the privacy of girls.

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys.

Finally parental rights- including rights of parents to teach their children about sex- must be respected. Implementing radical gender ideologies in schools nationwide is NOT the role of the federal government. The Department must reject implementing radical gender ideologies nationwide.

Thank you,

Mr. David Hales

The Title IX Amendments were clearly crafted to give educational opportunities to women and girls. The Biden Administration and the Department have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law. The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

I remember when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. This Department must not violate the privacy of girls.

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys.

Finally parental rights- including rights of parents to teach their children about sex- must be respected. Implementing radical gender ideologies in schools nationwide is NOT the role of the federal government. The Department must reject implementing radical gender ideologies nationwide.

Thank you,

Ms. Kathleen Collins

I remember when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. This Department must not violate the privacy of girls.

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys.

Finally parental rights- including rights of parents to teach their children about sex- must be respected. Implementing radical gender ideologies in schools nationwide is NOT the role of the federal government. The Department must reject implementing radical gender ideologies nationwide.

Thank you,

Mrs. Madeline Monaco

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I am writing to you concerning the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)."

The Title IX Amendments were clearly crafted to give educational opportunities to women and girls. The Biden Administration and the Department have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law. The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

Acting Director Goldberg

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I am writing to you concerning the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)."

The Title IX Amendments were clearly crafted to give educational opportunities to women and girls. The Biden Administration and the Department have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law. The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

I remember when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. This Department must not violate the privacy of girls.

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys.

Finally parental rights- including rights of parents to teach their children about sex- must be respected. Implementing radical gender ideologies in schools nationwide is NOT the role of the federal government. The Department must reject implementing radical gender ideologies nationwide.

Thank you,

Mrs. Chuenmei Huang

I remember when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. This Department must not violate the privacy of girls! This will increase sexual assault to our girls and violate their modesty, values and conscience before God and their future spouse. What happened to the respect a lady was once given in society?

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys. We speak of racial discrimination, what about sexual discrimination against DNA verified females?

Finally parental rights- including rights of parents to teach their children about sex- must be respected. Implementing radical gender ideologies in schools nationwide is NOT the role of the federal government. The Department must reject implementing radical gender ideologies nationwide. This completely violates parental roles!

Once you destroy feminism and family values, you will destroy the nation. I pray that your eyes will be opened to the incredible harm you are doing to American families and the souls of children you are corrupting! You are emotionally scarring children before they have the right to speak for themselves. What an injustice!

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I am writing to you as a biological woman, teacher, and mother of four concerning the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)."

The Title IX Amendments were clearly crafted to give educational opportunities to women and girls; having two daughters, I value this greatly. The Biden Administration and the Department have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law, thereby ignoring the rights and needs of my daughters. The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- to invade privacy and steal opportunities from women and girls.

I remember when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. This Department must not violate the privacy or opportunities of girls just to pacify activists with an disturbing agenda.

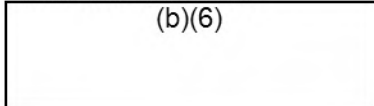

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not ignore science and force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys who "feel" like something else but still have the scientifically irrefutable evidence- and often physical advantages- of being male.

Finally parental rights- including rights of parents to teach their children about sex- must be respected. Implementing radical gender ideologies in schools nationwide is NOT the role of the federal government. The Department must reject implementing radical gender ideologies nationwide.

PARENTAL RIGHTS - including rights of parents to teach their children about sex- must be RESPECTED . Implementing radical gender ideologies in schools nationwide is NOT the role of the federal government. The Department must reject implementing radical gender ideologies nationwide.

My children, my rights. I raise them not the government. The government has not right to adocrine our children.

You can make special schools with these type of ideology to satisfy your agenda/needs.

The Title IX Amendments were clearly crafted to give educational opportunities to women and girls. The Biden Administration and the Department have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law. The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

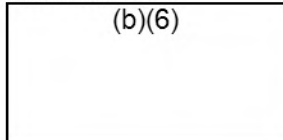

I remember when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. This Department must not violate the privacy of girls.

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys.

Thank you,

Mrs. Loui D

The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

I remember when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. This Department must not violate the privacy of girls.

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys.

Finally parental rights- including rights of parents to teach their children about sex- must be respected. Implementing radical gender ideologies in schools nationwide is NOT the role of the federal government. The Department must reject implementing radical gender ideologies nationwide.

Thank you,

Mrs. Joyce Dorsey

Acting Director Goldberg

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I am writing to you concerning the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)."

The Title IX Amendments were clearly crafted to give educational opportunities to women and girls. The Biden Administration and the Department have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law. The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

I remember when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. This Department must not violate the privacy of girls.

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys.

Finally parental rights- including rights of parents to teach their children about sex- must be respected. Implementing radical gender ideologies in schools nationwide is NOT the role of the federal government. The Department must reject implementing radical gender ideologies nationwide.

Thank you,

Ms. Vickie Lawrence

The Biden Administration and the Department have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law. The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

I remember when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. This Department must not violate the privacy of girls.

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys.

Finally parental rights- including rights of parents to teach their children about sex- must be respected. Implementing radical gender ideologies in schools nationwide is NOT the role of the federal government. The Department must reject implementing radical gender ideologies nationwide.

Thank you,

Mrs. Mya Arney

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I am writing to you concerning the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)."

The Title IX Amendments were clearly crafted to give educational opportunities to women and girls. The Biden Administration and the Department have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law. The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

I remember when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. This Department must not violate the privacy of girls.

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys.

Finally parental rights- including rights of parents to teach their children about sex- must be respected. Implementing radical gender ideologies in schools nationwide is NOT the role of the federal government. The Department must reject implementing radical gender ideologies nationwide.

Thank you,

Mrs. Ana Stafford

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I am writing to you concerning the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)."

Parental rights- including rights of parents to teach their children about sex- must be respected. Implementing radical gender ideologies in schools nationwide is NOT the role of the federal government.

Thank you,

Dr. Rafael De Armas

Acting Director Goldberg

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I am writing to you concerning the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)."

The Title IX Amendments were clearly crafted to give educational opportunities to women and girls. The Biden Administration and the Department have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law. The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

I remember when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. This Department must not violate the privacy of girls.

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys.

Finally parental rights- including rights of parents to teach their children about sex- must be respected. Implementing radical gender ideologies in schools nationwide is NOT the role of the federal government. The Department must reject implementing radical gender ideologies nationwide.

Thank you,

Dr. David Sisk

Acting Director Goldberg

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I am writing to you concerning the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)."

The Title IX Amendments were clearly crafted to give educational opportunities to women and girls. The Biden Administration and the Department have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law. The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

I remember when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. This Department must not violate the privacy of girls.

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys.

Finally parental rights- including rights of parents to teach their children about sex- must be respected. Implementing radical gender ideologies in schools nationwide is NOT the role of the federal government. The Department must reject implementing radical gender ideologies nationwide.

Thank you,

Mrs. Adrianne Bradley

I am writing to you concerning the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)."

The Title IX Amendments were clearly crafted to give educational opportunities to women and girls. The Biden Administration and the Department have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law. The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

I remember when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. This Department must not violate the privacy of girls.

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys.

Finally parental rights- including rights of parents to teach their children about sex- must be respected. Implementing radical gender ideologies in schools nationwide is NOT the role of the federal government. The Department must reject implementing radical gender ideologies nationwide.

You must not push these ideas !

Thank you,

Mr. Luther Wilson Brown

Acting Director Goldberg

Dear Acting Director Goldberg,

I am writing to you concerning the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)."

The Title IX Amendments were clearly crafted to give educational opportunities to women and girls. The Biden Administration and the Department have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law. The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

I remember when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. This Department must not violate the privacy of girls.

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys.

Finally parental rights- including rights of parents to teach their children about sex- must be respected. Implementing radical gender ideologies in schools nationwide is NOT the role of the federal government. The Department must reject implementing radical gender ideologies nationwide.

Thank you,

Mr. Toby Levering

I am writing to you concerning the Department's "Title IX Virtual Public Hearing to gather information for the purpose of improving enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX)."

The Title IX Amendments were clearly crafted to give educational opportunities to women and girls. The Biden Administration and the Department have clearly ignored the definitions, purpose, and scope of this law. The Administration's and the Department's actions, thus far, have shown their rush to redefine law and, worse- harm privacy and steal opportunities for women and girls.

I remember when the Obama Administration threatened Title IX funding if schools didn't force girls to share showers, locker rooms, and hotels with boys. Thankfully, a nationwide injunction stopped it. This Department must not violate the privacy of girls.

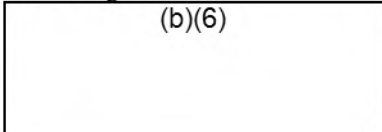

Today, girls are being forced to give up their places on podiums at sports events because biological boys are allowed to compete with them. And when they speak up, they are censored. This Department must not force girls to forfeit their opportunities to boys.

Finally parental rights- including rights of parents to teach their children about sex- must be respected. Implementing radical gender ideologies in schools nationwide is NOT the role of the federal government. The Department must reject implementing radical gender ideologies nationwide.

Thank you,

Mr. Randy Woods
