Dear Department of Education!

The Title IX rules deal with an important and highly sensitive issue. It is thus all the more important, that they are dealt with in a way that aligns with legal practice. There are good reasons for these procedures and rules of law in general. I thus urge you to keep the modifications of the previous administration in place, in particular the respect of due process. I realize that my comments come a bit late: I hope they can still be taken into account.
