If you make these changes and allow male bodied persons to participate in girls sports, here's what will happen...

Males compete on girls' teams —>

Girls' teams eventually mostly male —>

All sports become "unisex" because not enough girls participating to stay separate —>

Girls quite trying to excel at sports or even play for fun —>

Schools decide to stop spending money on separate female locker rooms and weight/training rooms because of small numbers of participation —>

20 years go by —>

Schools and governments begin to campaign to get more females into sports —>

Girls sue to get separate facilities and leagues for female only sports —>

Title IX part deux.
