Trans rights should not supersede the right of girls and women to privacy and separate spaces. Allowing that women and girls also have human rights is not a violation of trans rights, but the dehumanization and disregard of them in the public sphere right now could alter politics for a generation. I will not vote for a political party that finds calling me a front hole is acceptable and subsuming women as a part of “inclusion” does exactly that: it erases my sex in law and medicine, and denies the unique needs of half the planet. It will result in women dying as their physical needs are ignored, and they are threatened by becoming a subclass of human. I would not send my child to a school where the word “inclusion” violates my child’s human rights.
