As transgender girls are biological boys, I oppose them being allowed to compete in biological girls' sports. It isn't fair and will strike out the strides girls have made in recent decades.

The First Amendment of the US Constitution guarantees that Christian schools can adhere to their Biblical beliefs regarding sexuality. This must not be taken away if we are to remain a free society that promotes individuality.

It has been consistently shown that the majority of Americans don't want their tax money used in a manner that suppresses Biblical teaching.
