Dear Dept of Ed,
Please strengthen all Title IX protections for sexual orientation and gender identity discrimination, and sexual harassment. It is important that our children know that they are safe, respected, and cared for in our schools.

Teachers, like the one in Loudoun County, VA, should not be able to keep their jobs if they cannot support Title IX protections.

Be kind, be cold, and protect the most vulnerable in our schools...

Thank you,
Jackie Schworm

PS... After strengthening protections for our LGBTQ children, please remove all the higher education rules proposed by Betsey DeVos and Kenneth Marcus regarding sexual assaults on and off campus. No person should have to worry about finding a University office to report a rape after being assaulted in the middle of the night...

Please reverse the Education Rulings made by
