Thank you for allowing me the opportunity to address the proposed changes to Title IX regarding sexual orientation. I believe that there has to be another recourse to defending all people's rights other than trampling on the right of those who educate their children in schools that adhere to biblical values of gender and sexuality. The Democrat Party wants to completely obliterate anyone else's rights in favor of defending the rights of a few. Not only would the alteration of Title IX allow those identifying as males play on female sports teams, but it would allow these same people to utilize female rest rooms and locker rooms. As a grandmother of a child who is 4 years old, this simply cannot stand. It would allow people who identify as gay or transgendered to teach in any school, coach any sports team, or counsel any child. Please understand that public schools can be open to accommodate those who identify as non-binary. All of their funding is government based. But private schools and Christian schools receive very little in funding from the federal government and have strict standards by which they are guided. The best analogies I can think of for this situation is forcing Jews to eat pork or forcing a Catholic to denounce God or a Muslim to denounce Mohammed. We have rights too.

Thank you for your time.
