To Whom it may concern,

I am writing to ask to keep parents at the forefront of choices made for their children.

It should never be the job of the "state" or Federal Government to decide what will be taught , without showing the parents and giving them the right to choose what is best for their child.

America has always been for the right of "individuals ", not the government.

Thank you for reading and considering these thoughts.

Sincerely,
Mary Cresswell
