Subject: Please Protect Women and Girls

Women need sex-based rights and the ability to have privacy from male-bodied individuals. Many young people do not understand the urgent need for this. Many girls do not realize how predatory the world can be at a young age and learn as they grow older. Please listen to older women and men who know better. Please consider the needs of female athletes who cannot possibly compete against male-bodied individuals who's physique differs in more ways than just hormonal. Please stop the madness before an entire generation of women and girls is steamrolled by a movement that is a social contagion, lacking in consistency, shown to be linked to mental illness, and cult-like in its belief-based insistence and silencing of dissenters.
