I am writing to you with great concern on the new executive orders regarding Title IX and the redefinition of "sex" in it to include sexual orientation and gender identity. I am greatly against this and do not support this change. Being a grandmother to 9 grandkids and hearing this is very upsetting. This will bring more confusion to our country and our Schools. Let's bring back the old traditions of reading our bible before School starts and Standing and pledging to our American Flag and return our Country to the way our founding Father's established it.

Please prayerfully consider my comments. We will be praying for the Lords will to be done.

Thank you kindly,
